Orientation Ambassadors
Position Description

Orientation Ambassadors (OAs) play an integral role in the process of helping new students navigate the first days on campus. Being an enthusiastic and positive role model, facilitating group discussions, and assisting first-years to become familiar with the campus are the primary responsibilities for OAs. OAs will partner with faculty and staff to share key information about resources available to students for a successful transition into the Gettysburg College community.

Orientation Ambassadors are expected to:

- Move in the morning of August 20\textsuperscript{th} and participate in training that afternoon/evening
- Be present and participate enthusiastically in all pre-orientation scheduled activities August 21\textsuperscript{st} – August 23\textsuperscript{rd}
- Facilitate group discussion and ice breakers
- Serve as a peer resource for students during and after pre-orientation

Orientation Ambassadors will be selected based on their ability to:

- Work with diverse groups of individuals with different perspectives and experiences
- Communicate effectively
- Work as a team member
- Lead small group discussions
- Be organized and demonstrate time management skills

Compensation

Orientation Ambassadors are volunteers and receive a bookstore gift card for $50 in addition to the perks below

- Early move-in for OAs living on campus
- All meals during training and pre-orientation (after pre-orientation you will be responsible for your own meals from August 23\textsuperscript{rd} – August 27\textsuperscript{th})
- Opportunity to develop leadership skills and form meaningful relationships with first-year students
- Special limited edition OA gear
- Skills, abilities, and leadership experience for your resume
