New Faculty Orientation

New Faculty Orientation events will be held on a Friday in Glatfelter 301, 3:30 p.m.—4:30 p.m.

September 1
Internal and External Funding
Associate Provosts Julie Hendon and Jen Bloomquist

September 22
How to Respond to Student Issues
GailAnn Rickert, Dean of Academic Advising, Kathy Delaney, Lecturer in Psychology, and Julie Hendon

October 13
Building a Mentoring Network
Associate Provosts Julie Hendon and Jen Bloomquist

November 17
The Tenure Process at Gettysburg College
Provost Chris Zappe

Diversity Matters

Diversity Matters Luncheons will be held on Tuesdays in the Penn Hall Lyceum, 12:00 p.m.—1:00 p.m.

September 19
Creating an Inclusive Learning Environment for LGBTQA Students
Tiffany Lane, Director of LGBTQA Advocacy & Education

October 17
Benefits and challenges of an internationalized classroom: Working with International Students
Brad Lancaster, Director of International Student Services, Kelly Whitcomb, International Student Tutor, and faculty.

November 14
Teaching a more diverse community of students: The Office of Multicultural Engagement’s Perspective
Darrien Davenport, Ed.D., Executive Director Gettysburg College Multicultural Engagement

December 5
First Generation Students and the Hidden Curriculum
Monique Gore, Director, Multi-Cultural Programming & Outreach, Alecia Standlee, Assistant Professor of Sociology, and faculty.

Learning by Doing

Learning by Doing Luncheons will be held on Tuesdays in the Penn Hall Lyceum, 12:00 p.m.—1:00 p.m.

September 6*
Understanding Community-Based Learning and Research at Gettysburg College
Kim Davidson, Directory of the Center for Public Service, and faculty
*This event will be held on a Wednesday

October 3
Designing and Teaching a First-Year Seminar
Darren Glass, Professor of Mathematics and Director of the First-Year Seminar Program

October 16
Working and Negotiating with Publishers: The Devils in the Details
Julie Hendon, Scholarly Communications Librarians Janelle Wertzberger and Chris Barnes, Dan DeNicola (Philosophy) and Radi Rangelova (Spanish/LACLS)

October 31
Kayaking and Conversation: Experiential Education in Practice
Divonna Stebick, Associate Professor and Chair of Education, Nathifa Green, Assistant Professor of Philosophy, Tucker Little, Director of Experiential Education

Teaching in These Times

Teaching in These Times discussions will be held on Thursdays in Glatfelter 301, 4:00 p.m.—5:00 p.m.

I want to give us a chance to get together periodically to talk about how current events affect our teaching, our students, and ourselves. I know there will be no shortage of topics if the last several months are any guide. Closer to each date I will share a starting point for discussion and suggested short news items or other readings. The topic that I’m thinking about for September 21st is violent protests and polarization but who knows what else might come up before then? Stay tuned.

◆ September 21
◆ October 12
◆ November 9

January Workshop

Friday, January 19
Introduction to Mediation: Techniques for Navigating Difficult Conversation and Resolving Conflicts
8:30 a.m.—4:00 p.m. Glatfelter Hall
Hakim Mohandas Amani Williams, Assistant Professor, Africana Studies. Space is limited. Reservations required.