HOLIDAY HELP

Looking for gifts for the Gettysburgian in your life? Or something special for yourself, so you know you’ll get at least one thing you want? If so, read on:

- The College Bookstore features an array of clothing, books and a plethora of Orange & Blue items. Shop online where – if you haven’t already done so – you can also sign up for the free Alumni Loyalty Program and get 20% off of all purchases, both online and whenever you’re on campus.

- Give someone the gift of a getaway weekend in Gettysburg! There is a variety of unique accommodations available, and an ever-growing choice of dining and shopping options. Check out what’s here, or contact the alumni & parent relations office for recommendations (alumni@gettysburg.edu or 717-337-6518).

- Give a simple but great gift - send a holiday card or email to a favorite professor, coach or staff member. The College address is still 300 N. Washington St., Gettysburg, PA 17325, and most email addresses can be found through the College’s website — most simply consist of first initial + last name (max of 8 letters total) @gettysburg.edu. You can also make your year-end Gettysburg Fund gift in honor/memory of someone who positively impacted you. See how.
GETTYSBURG GREATS IN THE NEWS

Owen Roizman '58, a five-time nominee for an Academy Award as a cinematographer, was presented with an honorary Oscar at the Governors Awards on Nov. 11 for his lifetime of achievement. Read an LA Times Q&A with Roizman, who was the cinematographer on such films as "The French Connection," "The Exorcist," "Tootsie" and "Network," to name a few.

Jill (Geiger) Beggs '92 was named an "Elite Women in Insurance" by Insurance Business Magazine for her global innovation work for Munich Re, where she is head of new strategic markets. Read about how Gettysburg got her started on her path.

Kelvin Datcher '92 was named director of intergovernmental affairs for the Mayor-elect of Birmingham, AL, Randall Woodfin.

Professor Ian Isherwood '00 and Musselman Library Archivist Amy Lucadamo '00 are planning to lead a team of students to DO history in France on the 100th anniversary of World War I this March. Learn more about this unique and interactive research trip, and see what you can do to help make it a reality.

Kate Anderson '09 may have added to your holiday enjoyment without you even knowing it... she is the songwriter for the Disney short "Olaf's Frozen Adventure," which is currently being shown in front of "Coco" on the big screen. The Christmas-themed featurette includes characters from the wildly popular "Frozen." Learn more about Kate.

Elizabeth Hilfrank ’18 became Gettysburg’s first All-America women’s cross country runner since Martha Orem ’84 (in 1981) with a 40th place finish at the NCAA Championships last month. Sarah Rinehart ’19 also qualified for the national meet – the first time two Bullet individuals have done so – and finished 74th out of 279 runners. Read more.

CAREER CORNER

- See what resources are available to alumni through the Center for Career Development, including online assessment tools, resume and cover-letter-writing tips, job openings and more.
CAMPAIGN CORNER

- If you’ve been thinking about endowing a new scholarship at the College, or adding to an existing one, now is a great time to do so! You can double the impact of your generosity for a limited time, as the Board of Trustees has approved a match challenge whereby commitments to new or existing endowed scholarships will be matched dollar for dollar, up to $250,000. Certain minimums apply. For more information, contact Bob Kallin P’12, VP of Development, Alumni and Parent Relations, at rkallin@gettysburg.edu or 717-337-6501.

- Legacy Planning: Learn how to dovetail family estate planning with philanthropy through an Installment Inheritance or other easy ways to provide for loved ones and the College. Engage us in a conversation by contacting Steve Miller, Executive Director of Planned Giving, at 717-337-6546/smiller@gettysburg.edu or Emily Clarke, Planned Giving Manager, 717-337-6478/eclarke@gettysburg.edu, or visit our website.

- The total goal for Gettysburg Great: The Campaign for Our College is $150 million, and thus far – with six months remaining – more than $141 million has been raised to benefit current and future Gettysburg students. See the latest news, learn about the five priorities of the Campaign, and see how you can make a difference – ALL gifts count and matter!

IN MEMORIAM

Trivia Time:

Head football coach Barry Streeter retired at the end of this season – with how many career victories at Gettysburg does he close his 39-year run?

A t-shirt goes to the first person to email alumni@gettysburg.edu with the correct answer!

Congratulations to last month’s winner, Anna Baldassare ’14, who was first to correctly answer that the First-Year Walk started in 2003. Also answering correctly – but too late to win – was Walk founder Lindsay Morlock ’04, who took on the project the summer before her senior year!
