CAMPUS REVIVAL: Following a summer filled with sports camps, conferences, construction projects and scores of tours for prospective students (not to mention Battlefield visitors), the Gettysburg College campus will return to its normal state within the next several weeks, when 2,600+ students arrive for the start of the 2018-19 academic year. Here are some of the scheduled highlights of the month:

- Fall sports teams, cheerleaders, Orientation leaders, residence hall staff and the marching band return between Aug. 10 and Aug. 20.
- First-Year Student Move-In Day is Wed., Aug. 22, when hundreds of volunteers (students, faculty, staff, alumni, parents) help the 750+ members of the Class of 2022 – arriving from 28 states and 14 additional countries – move into their residence halls. If you’d like to take part (and potentially visit your old dorm room), contact volunteer coordinator Rebekah Hurwitz ’19.
- About 50 members of the incoming class will voluntarily take part in pre-orientation Ascent trips, which provide leadership experience through wilderness education and service. See more.
- The 15th Annual First-Year Walk will take place Thursday, Aug. 23. The tradition, founded by a student, recreates the entire campus community’s walk through town to hear President Lincoln’s address at the cemetery on Nov. 19, 1863. Remarks will be delivered by Darrien Davenport, Executive Director of Multicultural Engagement, and the Gettysburg Address will be recited at the National Cemetery. Alumni, parents and friends are welcome to join the parade through town and/or attend the ceremony.

- The 28th Annual GIV (Gettysburg is Volunteering) Day is set for Aug. 24, when volunteers – primarily from the Class of 2022 – will provide service to the local community at a wide variety of venues. See photos from last year’s event.
- The first day of classes is Monday, Aug. 27, following a 5-day Orientation for the Class of 2022 and transfer students. To elicit some nostalgia, see the full Orientation schedule.

GETTYSBURG GREATS IN THE NEWS:

- Josh Carmel ’13 was selected as June’s Volunteer Inspiring Pro Bono (VIP) by the Veterans Consortium Pro Bono Program for his legal work on behalf of veterans. Read about the great work he’s doing.
- Christine Doktor ’00 is running for State Representative in MA, and one of her campaign volunteers is Sara Tower ’12, though they didn’t initially know about their shared G-burg connection. Sara, an environmental studies major, is doing some noteworthy things herself and was featured in a recent article about her innovative nut-farming enterprise. Read more.
- Shawn Boehringer ’90 begins his new job today as Executive Director of Legal Aid of Southeastern Pennsylvania. He had been the Chief Counsel at the Legal Aid Bureau of Maryland previously.
- Chris Weyant ’89, a political science major who has contributed cartoons to The New Yorker for years, is now a staff political cartoonist for the Boston Globe. See some of his work.
- Ron Myers ’69, recipient of the 2005 Distinguished Alumni Award for his work as a chemist, inventor, educator, and consultant, was recently presented with the Lifetime Achievement Award by Marquis Who’s Who. See more.

AROUND TOWN AND CAMPUS:

- Gettysburg lacrosse player Liza Barr ’20 was featured in Sports Illustrated’s “Faces in the Crowd” last month (Sammy Sosa on cover) for scoring a career-high five goals in the NCAA Championship game, leading the Bullets to their second straight title. Barr’s father, Brian ’86, played football at Gettysburg and is in the Hall of Athletic Honor.
- In related news, women’s lacrosse coach Carol (Daly) Cantele ’83 recently was named Coach of the Year by the Intercollegiate Women’s Lacrosse Coaches Association. It’s the 4th time Cantele has earned the award. Read more.

- Wondering how the CUB construction is coming along?! Check out the latest via the live webcam. It will be open for the start of the upcoming fall semester!
- Brad Lancaster, director of international student services at Gettysburg, was quoted extensively in a U.S. News & World Report story about orientation programs for parents of international students. See the piece, which showcases the College’s innovative program.
- Recently featured in the e-newsletter from the Office of Planned Giving, read about how one young alumna is planning for Gettysburg with the simplicity of a beneficiary designation. Contact us to learn more about deepening your impact with careful planning.
- If you’re a veteran, and/or are interested in veterans’ issues, save the dates of Nov. 9-10 for a weekend of programming on campus, including the dedication of the Vietnam Veterans Memorial in the new area of the CUB. Registration details will be shared next month.
- The Presidential Search Committee, which is charged with finding President Riggs’ successor, is seeking your input on the qualities and characteristics of our next president. Please take this short survey before August 24! Thank you.

Homecoming Happenings: Make plans to return for Homecoming Weekend 2018, which will be Sept. 21-23! Highlights include…

- Open Houses in the renovated CUB
- 5th Reunion for the Class of 2013
- Reception to honor retired chemistry professors Joe Grzybowski and Bill Parker
- Study Abroad Reunion
- Campaign Closing Celebration
- Football game vs. McDaniel
- Legacy Admissions Experience for alums with seniors in high school (registration required)

Bullet Benefits: Did you know that the following benefits are available to Gettysburg alumni?

- Online alumni directory (password protected), with a variety of powerful search tools

• Discounts on auto and home/renter’s insurance
• Membership availability at the Penn Club of New York, with reciprocal agreements at clubs around the world
• Gettysburg College license plates (in PA and MD)
• Bookstore discount program for alumni and spouses/partners
• Career services

Learn about all of these and more!

CAREER CORNER:

• The Center for Career Development is replacing GettysburgWorks with Handshake, an online job and internship posting system that is incredibly user-friendly and will open up vast opportunities for students and alumni. Grads may set up a free account today – see how.
• Marcela Manzo Vessi has joined the Center for Career Development staff as a Career Counselor and Coordinator for Volunteer Engagement. She is a recent graduate of The Pennsylvania State University (PSU), where she earned her Master of Education in Higher Education with a focus in Student Affairs.
• The Young Alumni Leadership Program, an award-winning initiative that matches alumni mentors with motivated young alumni, is looking for participants to take part as both mentors and mentees. The year-long program consists of two on-campus sessions during the school year, as well as connection with a mentor, and high-impact leadership development. Get more information on the program and see how you can be involved.

POM: Here’s the second installment of our new Bullet Points Photo of the Month contest! As a reminder, we’re looking for your best “Orange & Blue-spirited” photos, so please submit anything that showcases Gettysburg and/or Gettysburgians in a positive, fun, entertaining way. It could be a group of alums wearing G-burg gear on the top of Mt. Kilimanjaro, a selfie of you reading the Gettysburg Magazine in a cool spot, your pet attired in O&B, something from the archives that invokes nostalgia, etc. Just send your entry to alumni@gettysburg.edu and check this space next month to see if you’re a winner! And see this month’s shot – some of the families, friends and alums who were in Roanoke, VA, in late May to witness the women’s lacrosse team’s NCAA title.
TRIVIA TIME: The seven states with the most members in the Class of 2022 – in order – are PA, NJ, NY, MD, CT, MA and VA. What state comes in at 8th place? A t-shirt goes to the first person to email alumni@gettysburg.edu with the correct answer.

Congrats to last month's winner, Bob Allen ’89 P’20, who was first on the draw with the correct answer of Michael Bishop ’57 as the College’s Nobel Prize winner (for medicine in 1989).
