TAKE PART IN A G-BURG TRADITION: For more than 60 years, the Gettysburg College community has welcomed the incoming class of new students and parents to the Gettysburg family through regional “Send-Off” events, and you are cordially invited to help continue that tradition this year with the Class of… 2022!

- There will be 14 Send-Offs in various locales between July 12 and Aug. 12, ranging from Boston to California. See locations, get additional information and/or register to attend one or more (dates and locations can also be seen below in the Calendar section).
- Send-Offs are designed for alumni, parents and current students to welcome the 700+ Class of 2022 members and their families to the College community, while helping build the strength of the Gettysburg Network.
- If you have any questions, contact the Office of Parent Relations at parents@gettysburg.edu or 717-337-6497. Hope you can join us!

AROUND TOWN & CAMPUS:

- Wes Bartlett ’94 (tennis), Liz Janelle ’03 (swimming), Curtis McNeil ’02 (basketball), Terry Reinman ’89 (cross country, track, swimming), Barry Streeter (coach), and Jennifer White '01 (field hockey, softball) will comprise the 40th anniversary Hall of Athletic Honor induction class on Friday, Sept. 21, during Homecoming Weekend. Learn more.

- The College will host the 6th Annual Patriotic Pops Concert & Fireworks on July 4 on the Science Center lawn. There will be food and drink vendors from 6 p.m. onward, with 60s/70s/80s rock & roll music performed by The Willys (featuring Bill Serfass '81) at 6:30. The patriotic orchestra music, under the direction of Sunderman Conservatory professor Russ McCutcheon and music professor emeritus Norm Nunamaker, begins at 8:30, and will be followed by fireworks, sponsored by Destination Gettysburg. Learn more about the event, which is free and open to the public.
- The Battle of Gettysburg 155th Anniversary Reenactment will be held July 5-8, when a variety of events are scheduled just northeast of town. Get more info. The following weekend – July 12-15 – will be the annual Gettysburg Bike Week in town. If you like Harleys and history, this is your weekend! See more.
- First-Year Student Move-In Day is Wed., Aug. 22, when hundreds of volunteers (students, faculty, staff, alumni, parents) help the 700+ members of the Class of 2022 move into their residence halls. If you’d like to take part (and potentially visit your old room), you can sign up here.
- Save the date of Sat., Nov. 10, when the new Vietnam Memorial on campus will be dedicated as part of the soon-to-be-completed addition to the College Union Building. An additional educational component of the memorial will be an archival collection of materials from the era. You can make a gift to the project (note “Vietnam Memorial Project”), as well as contact Amy Lucadamo '00 (alucadam@gettysburg.edu) in the Library if you have items (photos, journals, etc.) to donate to it.
- How did a study-abroad experience for Rhiannon Winner ’19 lead to her decision to pursue a career in the U.S. Marines? Read her story.

GETTYSBURG GREATS IN THE NEWS:

- Sarah Jacobs ’06 – or at least her art – is big in Pittsburgh! If you’re flying into Pittsburgh International Airport, keep an eye out for her large painting “Fake Flowers,” which was recently installed on the transit level near the train in the airport. See more about Sarah and her work.
- Phillip Hamilton ’83, professor of history at Christopher Newport Univ., has co-edited Justifying Revolution: Law, Virtue, and Violence in the American War of Independence, published by the University of Oklahoma Press. Read more.
- Phil Grayson ’70 P’06 received a commendation from the Kennedy Center for Distinguished Achievement in Design for Eastern Mennonite University’s production of 39 STEPS.
- Jerry Spinelli ’63’s acclaimed book Stargirl is getting closer to being turned into a movie, as Grace VanderWaal, who won America’s Got Talent two years ago as a 12-year-old, has been cast in the lead role for the Disney production. Read more.
- Joe Paradine ’57, who swam and participated in track as a Bullet, remains active as an athlete at the age of 82. He took the silver medal in the pole vault at the US Track & Field National Masters Championship in the 80-84 age group, and also took the age group gold medal in the 100-meter dash at the Penn Relays this spring.
- Joe “Poker Face” Lang ’54, who was inducted into the G-burg Hall of Athletic Honor in 2003 for his exploits on the basketball court and baseball field and also enjoyed a successful secondary school coaching career, recently had the baseball field at Pitman High School (NJ) named in his honor. Learn more about Joe.

CAREER CORNER:

- The Young Alumni Leadership Program, an award-winning initiative that matches alumni mentors with motivated young alumni, is looking for participants to take part as both mentors and mentees. The year-long program consists of two on-campus sessions during the school year, as well as connection with a mentor, and high-impact leadership development. Get more information on the program and see how you can be involved.
- The Center for Career Development (CCD) will be packing up everything in the office on Stevens Street next month and moving into its new home in the CUB addition! The office will be right next door to the Garthwait Leadership Center offices on the 2nd floor of the addition. Come visit when the fall semester begins!
- See what resources are available to alumni through the CCD, including online assessment tools, resume and cover-letter-writing tips, job openings and more.

CAMPAIGN CORNER:

- Thanks to the more than 11,000 alumni, parents and friends who made a gift this year, providing more than $23 million in outright gifts and commitments in the final year of Gettysburg Great: The Campaign for Our College. The Gettysburg Fund crested $4 million for the first time, and nearly $1 million – also a record – was raised for athletics through the Orange & Blue Club. The final Campaign total raised to benefit current and future students will be announced on Sept. 22 – stay tuned!
- Chris Matthaei ’01’s most recent gift to the Campaign will directly benefit Economics students – read about what he’s made possible.
- If you invest in the stock market, it’s likely that you have at least some appreciated shares in your portfolio. Before you make your next gift to Gettysburg College, learn about the benefits of donating stock. This can be a great way to support the Gettysburg Fund or other current initiatives. For longer-term planning, a charitable remainder trust can help meet a variety of goals. Questions? Contact us.

POM: We’re excited to introduce a new feature in Bullet Points: the Photo of the Month contest! We’re looking for your best “Orange & Blue-spirited” photos, so please submit anything that showcases Gettysburg and/or Gettysburgians in a positive, fun, entertaining way. It could be a group of alums wearing G-burg gear on the top of Mt. Kilimanjaro, a selfie of you reading the Gettysburg Magazine in a cool spot, your pet attired in O&B, something from the archives that invokes nostalgia, etc. Just send your entry to alumni@gettysburg.edu, or use this form, and check this space next month to see if you’re a winner!

TRIVIA TIME: Who is the lone Gettysburg graduate to earn a Nobel Prize (in medicine)? A t-shirt goes to the first person to email alumni@gettysburg.edu with the correct answer.

Congrats to last month’s winner, Lorna Rice ’81, who was the first to answer that true-to-life movies were made about David Hartman ’72 (Journey From Darkness, 1975) and Cory Weissman ’12 (1000 To 1: The Cory Weissman Story, 2014). Savannah Rose ’17 earns extra credit for pointing out that documentaries about presidential candidate Ron Paul ’57 (Ron Paul Uprising, 2012) and comedian Ritchie Shydner ’74 (I Am Comic, 2010) can also be viewed.
