BACK-TO-BACK NATIONAL CHAMPS!
Congratulations to the women’s lacrosse team, which won the NCAA Div. III Championship for the second straight year this past weekend! It’s the 3rd NCAA title for the Bullets in the last eight seasons, and 4th national team title in school history (1980 field hockey). Read all about it!

MAY STILL BE TIME: The Gettysburg College Fund Year – and Gettysburg Great: The Campaign for Our College – end at midnight tonight (May 31), which means…

- All gifts received (or checks dated) by midnight will count in the 2017-18 fund year totals. It’s quick and easy to make your online gift now if you haven’t already done so!
- In addition, all gifts made in this fund year will count toward the Campaign total, which has drawn support from more than 23,000 people through the first 2,556 days of it!
Looking for another reason to give back? Remember that every alumni gift helps to improve our annual ranking in U.S. News & World Report. Its sole measure of “alumni satisfaction” is based on the percent of alumni who give back to the College. Your gift makes a difference in these rankings and in our students’ experiences!

If you’re an alum or parent who’s made a gift the last two (or more) years, a gift this year will earn (or retain) your spot in the “Loyalty Circle,” the donor society that recognizes our most loyal and consistent donors.

To be part of this year’s success story, make an online gift before midnight tonight; mailing instructions can also be found on our “How to Give” page. For those who have already given, or are about to do so, thanks so much for your valued support!

GETTYSBURG GREATS IN THE NEWS:

- Andy Muns ’65 vanished in 1968 while serving in the Navy in the South Pacific. He was classified as a deserter and a thief, but more than 30 years later the true story came out about what happened to him, and he’s now memorialized at Arlington National Cemetery. His fascinating story was portrayed on CBS’s 48 Hours earlier this week. See more.
- Dr. Robert Ehrhart ’67 served a full career in the U.S. Air Force, retiring as a Lt. Colonel, then went back to school to study Range & Watershed Management at the U. of Montana. Earlier this year he received the Outstanding Achievement Award for Research/Academia from the Society for Range Management. Read more.
- Sue Marshall Marotto ’85, a member of the College’s Hall of Athletic Honor as a two-sport star, was inducted into the Middle Atlantic Conference Hall of Fame this spring. Learn more.
- Jeff Maynes ’05, a philosophy professor at St. Lawrence Univ., gave a TEDx talk at his school this semester entitled “On ‘BS’-ing Ourselves.” See what he had to say.
- Alexander Englert ’09 has earned one of 21 Charlotte Newcombe Doctoral Dissertation Fellows for 2018 by the Woodrow Wilson National Fellowship Foundation. He’s a Philosophy Ph.D. candidate at Johns Hopkins. Read more.
- Laura Habecker ’13 served as the post-production coordinator for the HBO movie Paterno, which debuted last month and stars Al Pacino. See more.

AROUND TOWN & CAMPUS:

- Are you smarter than the average Jeopardy contestant? See if you know the question to this answer, which appeared during the recent Teachers Championship episode!
- New York, Philly, Pittsburgh, Allentown and Trenton will have Gettysburg College alumni & parent gatherings at baseball games over the next month, and there will also be a Sunset Cruise on the Hudson River (leaving from the NJ side) on a historic schooner. Get more details and register today!

• Planning to visit Gettysburg this summer, or looking for a good excuse to do so? Check out the Majestic Theater schedule while making your plans, as the “Wednesday Night Classic Movies” series continues for the 12th summer, featuring films ranging from Casablanca to Saturday Night Fever to Airplane! In addition, two big musical acts will come to town for performances in the beautiful venue – David Crosby (June 3) and Mary Chapin Carpenter (Aug. 1).

• See video and photo highlights from Commencement Weekend, which took place May 19-20 and featured 608 graduates receiving their diplomas. In addition, Richard Boak ’72, Carol Hirst Clark ’61, Bob Ortenzio ’79 and John Perdew ’65 received Distinguished Alumni Awards during the weekend.

• Save the date of Sat., Nov. 10, when the new Vietnam Memorial on campus will be dedicated as part of the new addition to the College Union Building (CUB). An additional educational component of the memorial will be an archival collection of materials from the era. You can make a gift to the project (note “Vietnam Memorial Project”), as well as contact Amy Lucadamo ’00 in the Library if you have items (photos, journals, etc.) to donate to it.

• Looking for reading and entertainment recommendations as summer approaches the northern hemisphere? The newest edition of You’ve Gotta Read This: Summer Reading at Musselman Library is now available, and it has 178 suggestions of great books, films and television shows recommended by College faculty, staff, and administrators for you to enjoy. Happy reading!

• Reunion Weekend runs June 1-3, and 1,500 alumni and friends are expected back for the festivities, which will include awards presented by the Alumni Board of Directors to Justin Hoover ’03 & Jon Messier ’03 (Young Alumni – Career Development), Louisa Polos ’08 & Kyle Rhood ’08 (Young Alumni – Service), and Don Burden ’63 & Roy Fairman ’68 (Meritorious Service).

CAREER CORNER:

• The Center for Career Development will be packing up everything in the office on Stevens Street over the summer and moving into its new home in the CUB addition in August! The office will be right next to the Garthwait Leadership Center offices on the 2nd floor of the addition. Come visit when the fall semester begins!

• The summer is an exciting time for many students who are gaining “Gettysburg Great” experience in the workplace. More than 200 students have registered their summer internship experience, and nearly 100 are participating in the Summer Externship Program (one-week job shadows) with alumni and parent mentors in locations across the country.

• See what resources are available to alumni through the Center for Career Development, including online assessment tools, resume and cover-letter-writing tips, job openings and more.
CAMPAIGN CORNER:

- TODAY is the final day of Gettysburg Great: The Campaign for Our College! There's still time to add your gift to the final total and be part of the final push to successfully raise more than $150 million to benefit current and future Gettysburg students. The final total will be announced during Homecoming Weekend in September, and if you're not already one of the 23,000+ alumni, parents, students and friends who have made a gift during it – you can add your name to the list today!

- Did you know you can make a gift and receive a stream of income for life? Read more about how you can request a no-obligation gift illustration, with news about increased payment rates, and learn about some Gettysburg donors and their inspiring stories of support.

TRIVIA TIME: Two Gettysburg alumni have had movies made about their lives. Who are they? A t-shirt goes to the first person to email alumni@gettysburg.edu with the correct answer.

Congrats to last month’s winner, Rich Shevalier P’19, who was the first to answer that 1863 was the “only year we did not have a Commencement ceremony” (16 graduates in the Class of ’63, but no ceremony due to the aftermath of the Battle). However, fellow P’19 Keith Jansen correctly pointed out that we ALSO did not have a ceremony in 1836, because there were no students to graduate that year! Sorry for the bad question, but thanks to Keith for the good research! He earned a t-shirt, too.
