AWESOME AUTUMN: Now that the calendar has flipped to September, it’s time to start thinking about fall-semester activities; here are some highlights:

- Sept. 21-23, Homecoming Weekend – Activities include special reunions for Study Abroad Alumni and the Classes of 2013 and 2018, a faculty-member-led bike ride around the countryside, chances to explore the new addition to the CUB, home football game (vs. McDaniel), the Legacy Admissions Experience, a reception to honor retired Chemistry professors Bill Parker and Joe Grzybowski, and a gala to celebrate the successful conclusion of our Campaign. See the full schedule and register! (all online registrants will also be in a drawing to win a G-burg hoodie!).

- Oct. 19-21, Family Weekend – Highlights include “Parent College” classroom experiences, an address from President Riggs, a bevy of home sports contests, opportunities to explore the town of Gettysburg, and various student group performances. See the schedule of events and more.

- Veterans Day Weekend, Nov. 9-11 – The Vietnam Veterans Memorial in the new addition to the CUB will be dedicated on Saturday, Nov. 10, at 11 a.m., and a host of additional events – educational, emotional and social – will fill out the weekend. While the focus will be on those who served, EVERYONE is invited to attend. See the full schedule of events and register today.
GETTYSBURG GREATS IN THE NEWS:

- Jane Dunbar Tedeschi ’40 flew military aircraft for the U.S. during World War II. Read this fascinating profile from the Denver Post. She was also featured in the most recent Delta Gamma magazine, Anchora.
- Brian Orsinger ’01, an AVP at USI Insurance Service in Mechanicsburg, PA, was selected to be one of a small group of inaugural members to IBInext, a thought-leadership group hand-picked by the Board of the Integrated Benefits Institute to bring together promising young professionals from across the country to drive innovation in the health benefits industry. Read more.
- Eytan Shander ’02 was profiled for his work at the popular WIP Sports Radio (94.1 FM)/The Fanatic in Philadelphia. Read about what he does.
- Joe Gasparro ’07, VP at Credit Suisse, was quoted extensively in a story on Bloomberg about the reemerging popularity of hedge funds. Read what he had to say.
- Sneha Shrestha ’10 is building an international reputation as an artist combining graffiti and Sanskrit, and has had murals commissioned from Boston to Bali. Check out what she’s doing. She also founded the Children’s Art Museum in her native Nepal in 2013.

AROUND TOWN AND CAMPUS:

- One week of classes is already in the books, but prior to that the 760 members of the Class of 2022 arrived and took part in Orientation activities, highlighted by Convocation, the First-Year Walk and Gettysburg Is Volunteering (GIV) Day. See video and photos from these events and more.
- Martin Puryear, the sculptor of “The Sentinel” on campus (commissioned for the College’s Sesquicentennial in 1982), has been selected to represent the U.S. at the 58th Annual Venice Biennale next spring. Read more from the New York Times about one of America’s foremost sculptors.
- Do you like video games? If so, you’ll probably want to read about the innovative video game music course taught by Bill O’Hara in our Sunderman Conservatory of Music.
- The Lincoln Lyceum Lecture will be held in CUB 260 on Wed., Oct. 3, and will be delivered by Dr. Edward Ayers, the recipient of this year’s Gilder Lehrman Lincoln Prize at Gettysburg College. Ayers, President Emeritus at the U. of Richmond, has received the National Humanities Medal, was a finalist for the Pulitzer Prize and National Book Award, and cohosts the popular history podcast BackStory. The lecture is free and open to the public.
- The 1832 Society celebrates well over 700 alumni, parents, and friends who are making a difference for Gettysburg. Look for more about the impact of their legacies on the inside back cover of GETTYSBURG magazine later this month. Contact us to learn more about how you can plan to invest in Gettysburg College today.
- The fall sports season began yesterday, with volleyball and women’s soccer in action. Teams will be in action 16 of 30 days in September; check out who's
The start of a new school year is a great time to begin following the College on social media if you’re not already doing so. There are a variety of channels at your fingertips to do so – listed below – so start following today if you’re not already!

In addition, our athletic teams, several departments and programs, and many other campus organizations have their own feeds. Check them out or do some additional digging to find the areas of specific interest to you.

CAREER CORNER:

- The Class of 2017 Alumni One-Year-Out survey results are in, and 98% of the class reports being employed or in graduate school.
- Does your organization have entry level jobs or internship opportunities? If so, you can help a current student or young alum advance their career by posting opportunities in our online platform Handshake, as well as register to recruit at our upcoming Job & Internship fair on Thursday, October 4th from 11 a.m. - 1 p.m. in the CUB Ballroom. Contact our Employer Relations team at employers@gettysburg.edu for more details.
- See what resources are available to alumni through the Center for Career Development, including online assessment tools, resume and cover-letter-writing tips, job openings and more.

PHOTO OF THE MONTH: Is there anybody more Orange & Blue than Jack Duffy ’79? Whether it’s building a pipeline of 60+ Gettysburgians to work with him at AT&T, serving on the Alumni Board of Directors, or hitting the links, Jack wears Gettysburg on his sleeve wherever he goes! See below to see what we mean. Submit your nominee for POM to alumni@gettysburg.edu.
TRIVIA TIME: Looking back 100 years..., how many graduates were there in the Class of 1922? A t-shirt goes to the first person to email alumni@gettysburg.edu with a number within five of the correct answer.

Congrats to last month’s winner, Patty Carpenter Chamberlain from the GREAT Class of ’85, who was the first on the draw to know that Illinois was state No. 8 in terms of the number of incoming students to the Class of 2022 (with 24!). Ahead of IL, in order, are PA, NJ, NY, MD, CT, MA and VA.
