As the president and as an alumna of Gettysburg College, I want to thank you for your assistance as a reunion volunteer, and for working to create a memorable reunion experience for your classmates. The time you give will make this gathering special and—as I know from my own involvement—will help make your reunion a rewarding experience for you personally. In fact, throughout this process, it’s likely that you will strengthen some of your long-term relationships and develop some new ones!

The success of Reunion Weekend would be impossible without dedicated alumni like you. As you work to help your classmates celebrate their time as Gettysburg College students, you are also helping them maintain and enrich their connection to our alma mater. The strength of that connection is of great importance to our success as a College. Our alumni carry this Gettysburg pride into their communities and workplaces, offer career-related experiences to our students, and provide much-needed financial support.

On behalf of your classmates and the Gettysburg College community, thank you for the time and energy you are giving as a reunion committee member. And please join me in supporting our alma mater to ensure that a Gettysburg College education is forever great.

Sincerely,

Janet Morgan Riggs ’77
President
Before you begin the planning process, the Division of Development, Alumni and Parent Relations would like to take this opportunity to THANK YOU for your efforts. By serving on your reunion committee, you have demonstrated your enthusiasm and dedication to the College and your class. Reunion Weekend would not be possible without the hard work of volunteers like you!

INTRODUCTION

REUNION WEEKEND PLANNING

Your class reunion is approaching! It will be a part of the May 30 – June 2, 2019 Alumni College and Reunion Weekend.

This handbook is designed to help you celebrate your reunion. It is a guide. Feel free to add your class’s creativity, energy, and excitement to the planning of this event.

The most important thing: HAVE FUN, as you and your classmates prepare to “waken fond memory” of Gettysburg College.

If you have any questions while planning your reunion, remember that the members of the Development, Alumni and Parent Relations staff are only a phone call or an email away! (See next page for contact info.)

Ingredients of a Good Reunion

People: There is no doubt about it: a primary reason people attend their reunion is to see other people. You’ll see friends and also have the opportunity to renew acquaintances with classmates with whom you’ve lost touch. There is no substitute for personal contact—contacting fellow classmates by phone, email, Facebook, or mail—to encourage reunion attendance. We’ve found that the more people a class has back on campus, the more successful the reunion.

Program: A reunion program gives classmates the opportunity to become re-engaged with the College and one another.

Participation: There are two measures of participation: attendees and gifts.

How many people from your class can you encourage to attend your reunion? What percentage of your class will make a gift to Gettysburg College?

Gettysburg encourages alumni to increase their annual and planned giving during their reunion year. During the weekend, the College will celebrate each class’s fundraising successes, including announcing totals for Annual Giving (Gettysburg Fund and Orange & Blue Club); participation during the June 1 - May 31 fiscal year; and all gifts and commitments received since their last reunion.

GETTYSBURG COLLEGE REUNION STAFF

The Offices of Alumni Relations and Annual Giving serve as the support team to the reunion committees. Our offices will help your committee to plan, market, and execute events and fundraising for your class. These assignments are subject to change.

DEVELOPMENT AND ALUMNI RELATIONS OFFICE RESPONSIBILITIES

The Gettysburg College liaisons will...

1. Provide Alumni College and Reunion Weekend programs and oversee all campus events.
2. Meet on or off campus with reunion planning committees as needed and arrange conference calls.
3. Send mailings and emails prepared by the committee.
4. Work closely with volunteers who solicit gifts for the College.
5. Provide class lists in alphabetical, ZIP code, or organizational order.
6. Provide all materials and information needed for solicitation.
7. Keep records of incoming gifts.
8. Prepare and mail the Alumni College and Reunion Weekend schedule of events, which includes registration form.
9. Maintain the reunion class websites.
10. Process the reunion registration forms.
11. Provide standard name tags.
12. Provide hotel/motel lists.
13. Arrange for class photo, Saturday afternoon.
14. Arrange all on-campus meals.
15. Make all on-campus housing assignments.
16. Promote Reunion Weekend in a variety of ways, including the Gettysburg magazine and “Bullet Points,” the monthly electronic newsletter. Reunion dates are promoted through Phonathon and a variety of College mailings.

SOCIAL PROGRAMMING

ALUMNI COLLEGE/REUNION WEEKEND HIGHLIGHTS

The weekend is packed with activities designed to appeal to a range of interests. Listed below are some of the highlights!

- Class Reunion Event
- All-Class Party

SATURDAY

Please encourage your classmates to participate in these activities:

- Presidential Remarks and Alumni Awards Ceremony
- Alumni Picnic Buffet
REUNION COMMITTEE ORGANIZATION

The reunion committee is actively engaged in the reunion planning process. The committee is responsible for encouraging attendance at Alumni Weekend and for personalizing the weekend to make it an enjoyable experience for your classmates.

Committees

The reunion committee chair(s) should appoint a person or subcommittee responsible for the following projects. Using the committee system helps lessen the demands on the chair.

- Outreach and Publicity
  This subcommittee is in charge of spreading the word about the reunion and getting classmates excited about coming back. The key to a successful reunion is early and frequent contact. Tap into existing affiliations (athletics, musical groups, Greek organizations, etc.) to encourage attendance.

  Mail: Work with Alumni Office to send mailings to classmates.

  Email: Work with the Alumni Office to send email updates to classmates.

  Facebook Page: Update and monitor the class Facebook page, if applicable. There may also be time-sensitive content that the College provides to be posted.

- Social (Friday Night)
  Menu and Location: For on-campus socials, the College’s catering will provide different menu options at varying prices. Committees should work with off-campus locations directly to coordinate event details, with assistance from the Alumni Office.

  Memorabilia: Do you have class pictures, slides, or other memorabilia that you want to display at the social?

  Materials/Equipment Needs: Be sure to communicate to the Alumni Office what items you will need that night (audio/visual, etc.).

- Event (Saturday Night)
  Menu and Location: All classes are encouraged to eat on campus. We will try to accommodate preferences for on-campus dinner locations, but final decisions will be made based on number of attendees closer to the event date. Alternative, off-campus arrangements can be made with assistance from the Alumni Office.

  Program: This should be short, upbeat, and class-specific, perhaps a class slideshow, entertainer, or favorite faculty member. Don’t forget a gift for the speaker if you have one. Also consider what your dress code will be so that classmates know what to wear.

  Volunteer Coordination: On the night of the dinner, you may need to have greeters, emcee(s), and someone to offer an invocation.

  Memorabilia: Do you have class pictures, slides, or other memorabilia that you want to display at the dinner?

  Materials/Equipment Needs: Be sure to communicate to the Alumni Office what items you will need that night (audio/visual, etc.).

- Special Events (Optional)
  Other Activities: Do you want to have a special theme for your reunion? Does your class want to arrange some special event on Saturday afternoon, such as a campus walk or tour?

  Souvenirs (Optional)
  These can add to the cost of your reunion, but they can be good class identification symbols and mementos. These can be distributed at the registration desk or at dinner.

This chart will help you plan your reunion by giving you an idea of how many people to expect. Look at the number who attended the reunion last year and the number who attended your last reunion to find an approximate range for this year.
Housing

There are two basic options:

Off-campus motel or hotel: Lists of off-campus accommodations can be viewed at www.gettysburg.edu/reunion; it is the responsibility of each alumnus/a to make his or her own arrangements. Hotels, motels, and bed and breakfasts range from about $80 to $300/night.

Campus housing: Staying in the residence halls can be fun, but it is NOT luxurious, and alumni who choose to stay on campus have to be willing to “rough it” a bit. Linens, blankets, washcloths, SMALL towels, cups, and soap are provided but not replenished throughout the weekend. Alumni should bring personal care items such as bathrobes, slippers, hangers, and additional towels, pillows, blankets, fitted sheets, and bedding, if needed. All beds are twin. All rooms are air-conditioned and most have kitchenettes and shared living/lounging space.

The Alumni Office will assign on-campus housing. Alumni make reservations on their Reunion Registration Form. This form is mailed to all alumni in the spring and is also available online at that time. If alumni do not state specific roommate requests, they may be assigned roommates. Roommate requests will be honored only if both parties request each other.

The number of reservations per class will determine the dorm to which a class is assigned, and consequently, housing assignments are not made until the week before Reunion Weekend. Every effort will be made to house classes together.

Approximate Cost:

$50/person/night
$185/family of 4 or more/night

Gift Planning

Your reunion is a milestone and a time for reflection and celebration. A tradition synonymous with reunion is celebrating the fundraising efforts of the class. As part of your class’s reunion planning, the Office of Annual Giving will help the committee establish a fundraising dollar goal for the Gettysburg Fund and Orange & Blue Club, along with a class giving participation goal. The reunion fundraising goals along with overall giving and commitments to all areas of the College are announced at Reunion Weekend during the Presidential Remarks and Alumni Awards Ceremony and at your class dinner.

About the Gettysburg Fund

Fiscal year begins June 1st and ends May 31st every year!

What is the Gettysburg Fund? It is the heart of fundraising for Gettysburg College and an important component in the College’s budget. Motivated by loyalty, spirit, and belief in the College’s work and leadership, alumni, parents, and friends provide the operating support—much-needed, essential funds—for some of Gettysburg’s most critical needs. These funds have immediate impact on the quality of the College and are used in every area, allowing Gettysburg to do things like:

- Continue our commitment to financial aid to meet student needs;
- Attract and maintain world-class faculty in each department;
- Equip classrooms and laboratories with the tools and supplies needed for instruction;
- Keep Musselman Library up-to-date with acquisitions to support teaching and learning;
- Allow us to invite guest lecturers and visiting scholars and to pursue special academic programs and seminars;
- Support student-faculty collaborations on research and creative projects;
- Provide professional development for faculty and staff, and opportunities for students to attend professional and scholarly conferences;
- Support student services for career placement, health and wellness, and leadership development;
- Keep our facilities and grounds operating and well-maintained, and meet the other essential needs that make the Gettysburg Experience possible.

Orange & Blue Club

For more than three decades, the Orange & Blue (O&B) Club has provided annual support to Gettysburg College athletics, ensuring that the Bullets have the resources needed to remain a leader among NCAA Division III programs. This financial support is critical. Student-athletes and coaches could not achieve this high level of success without the combination of College and donor resources. Whether for scoreboards, fields, uniforms, equipment, state-of-the-art technologies, or cutting-edge training methods, the dollars raised through the O&B Club impact every part of the athletic program at Gettysburg.

Your support of the O&B Club—this year and every year—provides for the student-athletes, coaches, trainers, and staff. Giving to the O&B Club strengthens a community that values academic excellence, athletic spirit, and rich tradition.
LEADERSHIP GIVING: THE CUPOLA SOCIETY

We recognize that every gift is an important commitment and investment by the donor.

Those donors who make annual gifts of $2,500 or above are welcomed into the Cupola Society. Through their leadership giving and enthusiastic commitment to Gettysburg, this generous group sets an example, inspires others, and makes a significant impact on the College.

Cupola Society members have opportunities to develop closer relationships with the President, College leaders, and the Board of Trustees, in addition to taking part in special programs and events. Their gifts and their knowledge of the institution help to advance the College’s mission.

Young alumni are invited to join the inner circle of Gettysburg College supporters as Cupola Society Associates. Members of this elite group of donors contribute annual gifts of at least $100 for each year since graduation through their 10 year reunion. Thereafter, Cupola Society Associates are invited to join as full members of the Cupola Society.

CONSISTENT GIVING: THE LOYALTY CIRCLE

Gettysburg College gratefully recognizes our most loyal supporters — consecutive annual donors. Known as the Loyalty Circle, our consecutive donor society celebrates and acknowledges alumni, parents, and friends who have given to the College for at least three consecutive years (fiscal year runs June 1 - May 31), or every year since graduation.

PLANNED GIVING: THE 1832 SOCIETY

Members of The 1832 Society include those who have named Gettysburg College in their wills, estate plans, or any other gift of future provision. They believe in a strong future for Gettysburg College. Examples of future provisions include bequests, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, charitable lead trusts, retained life estates, gifts of life insurance, and beneficiary designations from retirement plans.

WAYS YOU CAN HELP AS A VOLUNTEER

A general guideline of responsibilities for a Gettysburg reunion volunteer is as follows:

- Make your own gift or pledge (payable by May 31st) to the Gettysburg Fund by December 31st;
- Participate in conference calls and/or meetings;
- Make calls to invite classmates to attend Reunion Weekend and to make direct or indirect solicitations for gifts;
- Make time to call your assigned classmates. First touch — reconnect and give basic information; second touch — revisit and discuss social plans, gift goals, and his/her gift; third touch — follow-up;
- Share knowledge of the Gettysburg Fund and O&B Club with your peers; an online volunteer toolkit will help you create emails and social media posts.
- Be knowledgeable about the College and its future. Visit www.gettysburg.edu or stay up-to-date with the Bullet Points e-newsletter and/or the Gettysburg magazine.
- Plan to attend Reunion Weekend if able.

THE IMPORTANCE OF SUSTAINING GIFTS

One way to retain classmates as donors for years, not just during reunion, is to ask for a sustaining gift. Classmates can set the frequency (monthly, quarterly, or annually) and the amount of their gift. It will be charged automatically to their credit cards and will continue until they instruct the College to make a change. It’s not only convenient for the donor, it provides steady income for the College and enables smaller gifts to make a larger impact over time. For more information, call 717-337-6502, or visit www.gettysburg.edu/sustaininggift.
FAQs: SPEAKING WITH YOUR CLASSMATES

May I direct my Gettysburg Fund gift to a specific department or program?
The most powerful gift is a totally unrestricted commitment to the Gettysburg Fund. However, on the gift form anyone may designate a Gettysburg Fund gift to an area he/she has interest in helping; this includes an option to add a specific academic department, student activity, or scholarships and financial aid.

I can’t possibly make a gift of that size!
While ask amounts are not arbitrarily assigned, it is understood that not everyone can give at the level requested. Gift requests are based on an individual’s previous giving history or other information. Also, a gift can be spread out over many months and does not need to be completed in full until May 31. Additional information is available at www.gettysburg.edu/sustaininggift or by contacting your College reunion liason.

I cannot give right now.
A pledge commitment may be made at any time. Pledge reminders will be sent periodically as a reminder to complete your payments by May 31. Also, don’t assume “no” is a no to giving; it may be a no to the ask amount. This is an opportunity to ask for a lower amount or listen to the reasons behind the response. Stress that participation is important and gifts of all size really do matter.

I did not receive financial aid. Why should I help others?
Tuition covers only about 80 percent of the cost of attending Gettysburg. Even if you paid full tuition, you did not pay the actual full cost of your education. The Gettysburg Fund, along with endowment earnings and auxiliary enterprises, helped to provide the other 20 percent of the cost.

I support other causes that have greater need.
By giving to the Gettysburg Fund, you are ensuring that there will be future generations of men and women who will work for and with these causes. Supporting the Gettysburg Fund allows today’s students to become tomorrow’s leaders.

I will not give because of a particular Gettysburg College policy or issue.
Allow your prospect to voice his/her opinion. If he/she asks you for your opinion about the issue, use your own judgment. Do not argue with the person. Depending on the issue, it may be appropriate to close the call as quickly as possible. If you wish to respond, try to “own” your answer, e.g., “It has been my experience that…” Please note any specific requests for additional information or if follow-up by a College administrator would be appropriate.

If possible, remind your classmate that Gettysburg Fund gifts benefit people, specifically the current students of Gettysburg College. The largest portion of the money raised provides financial aid and faculty support. Choosing not to support the Gettysburg Fund affects the student body and faculty.

I just sent my gift.
That’s wonderful. The phone call would then be turned into a thank you call. Thank your classmate for supporting the Gettysburg Fund.

GETTYSBURG AT A GLANCE

Student Body
About 2,600 students, with approximately equal distribution of men and women, make up the student population. Gettysburg students come from 34 states, the District of Columbia, and 38 foreign countries or territories.

Student Life
More than 120 clubs and organizations focus on community service, art and music, the media, academics, athletics, student government, career fields, outdoor adventure, and other areas of interest. Clubs and organizations provide students with over 1,000 leadership opportunities each year. About 33 percent of men participate in fraternities and 35 percent of women participate in sororities.

Residence Life
More than 90 percent of the student body lives on campus in more than 40 residence halls, including special interest houses, apartment complexes, and fraternities.

Cultural Activities
Nearly 3,200 cultural events are offered within a four-year period including a full schedule of lectures, concerts, and plays, bringing to campus nationally known speakers and performers; an extensive film series; art exhibits; and trips to nearby Washington, D.C. and Baltimore to events of special interest.

Athletics
Gettysburg offers NCAA Division III competition in 24 sports for men and women, plus an extensive array of club, intramural, and recreational programs.

Spiritual Life
Students of all faiths can participate in programs coordinated through the Office of the Chaplain. Student religious organizations include Hillel, a Buddhist student organization, and a Newman Association for Catholic students. Historically, the College has been Lutheran-affiliated.

Center for Global Education
An extensive and popular program of international study is available through the Center for Global Education. Approximately 60 percent of Gettysburg students spend at least one semester studying globally.

Endowment
$313,816,062

2018–19 Tuition and Fees
Tuition $54,480; room $6,980; board $6,030

Financial Aid
Gettysburg College is committed to working with students and their families to ensure that one’s ability to pay is not an obstacle to a Gettysburg education. Sixty-six percent of all students receive some form of financial aid, and the average first-year financial aid award exceeds $38,146 a year. Most aid is awarded based on financial need, but academic merit and music scholarships are also available.
Majors and Programs
68 majors, minors, and programs

Student/Faculty Ratio
9 to 1

Average Class Size
17

Tenured and Tenure Track
More than 95% of tenured and tenure track faculty hold a doctorate or highest earned degree in their fields.

Honor Societies
Gettysburg College possesses one of only 20 chapters of Phi Beta Kappa in Pennsylvania, honorary or professional societies in numerous academic areas, and an academic honor code which has been in effect since 1957.

Library
The Gettysburg College library collection contains over 370,000 volumes. The library also has in its collection over 900,000 sound recordings, 16,000 DVDs and videos, over 4,300 linear feet of manuscripts and archives, nearly 33,000 music scores, and over 70,800 units of microfilm/fiche. In addition, the library provides access to more than 290 online databases, over 320,000 e-books, and over 57,000 print and online journals. The library’s automated, online catalog is accessible through numerous terminals in the library, as well as on- and off-campus via the internet.

Career Development
A Comprehensive Career Distinction program includes internship and externship opportunities, workshops on career and graduate school planning, job fairs, career days, an extensive alumni network, career library, group sessions on all phases of the career planning process, and individual career counseling. Ninety-eight percent of graduates have a job or are in graduate school within one year of graduating.
