

What it means to be a member of Orange & Blue

by David Wright,
Director of Athletics

In recent issues of the O&B Newsletter I addressed the mission of the athletic department and the state of athletics at Gettysburg College. With a new academic year underway, I thought it would be appropriate to share with you some thoughts about the mission and importance of the Orange & Blue Club.

The Orange & Blue Club provides financial and other kinds of support for the intercollegiate athletics program and teams at Gettysburg. The club also promotes athletics as an important part of the Gettysburg experience.

Club members include Gettysburg alumni, parents, faculty, staff, students, and other friends of the College, including corporations and foundations with an interest in Bullets sports. Orange & Blue Club members make financial contributions to strengthen the budget of the College’s 24-team program, helping to make those teams as competitive as possible.

The Orange & Blue Club also oversees the College’s Hall of Athletic Honor, which recognizes Gettysburg’s finest athletes from past years.

In the Centennial Conference, there is no finer athletic department than Gettysburg College’s. We have enjoyed the best win/loss record over the 14-year existence of the conference and hope to sustain our record in 2007-08. One of the reasons for this superb level of achievement is the support our coaches and student-athletes receive. Support comes in many forms – dedicated staff, understanding faculty and administration, loving family members, loyal alumni, and interested friends. Of course, financial support is one of the critical forms of assistance that enables the Bullets athletic program to excel. We simply could not achieve the level of success without the generous financial resources of the Orange & Blue Club. The College spends significant resources each year to ensure a high level of competence within our comprehensive program. The ability to combine College and donor resources has made a significant difference in the ability to succeed.

Whether we are purchasing scoreboards, goals, travel bags or golf carts, the dollars raised through athletic fund-raising efforts are critical. It is my hope that you will continue to support the athletes in orange & blue with your important financial commitment, and through your support at games whenever possible.

An invitation to get involved

Gettysburg College remains at the top of its peer institutions within the Centennial Conference with the most full-time coaches on staff, and arguably the most successful athletic program. Take some time and check out your favorite team on the College's athletics web page. New coaches have been named in four sports and there is great hope in their abilities to lead their teams to successful seasons. With a new director for the Orange & Blue Club in place, a strategic plan developed, and the O&B Advisory Council in the process of restructuring, there are high hopes for a great year on many fronts.

There are many ways for you to get involved, especially as the O&B Advisory Council develops programs and initiatives that will strengthen ties among alumni, parents, friends of the College, student-athletes, coaches, and administrators.

Further engaging the College community is at the heart of the College's strategic direction. You'll be hearing more in the coming year about opportunities to be part of the Gettysburg experience. Your voice is important to the future of this special place.

We encourage you to contact us anytime to help us learn about your Gettysburg experiences.

Whenever I return for a campus visit, I am in awe of the opportunities and facilities now available to Gettysburg athletes. I am equally impressed with the tremendous level of athletic ability that these student-athletes possess. Supporting Orange & Blue helps sustain one of the best Division III athletic programs in the country. As a former Gettysburg athlete, I personally know how valuable participating on athletic teams can be. Through my contributions to the Orange & Blue, I can continue to support an athletic program that had such a positive impact on my life.

Three Bullet alums inducted into Hershey Athletic Hall of Fame

by Corey Jewart,
Assistant Sports Information Director

Three former Gettysburg student-athletes - Frank Capitani '58, Mike Ercole '83, and Ken Snyder '65 - were inducted into the Hershey High School Athletic Hall of Fame on September 28. Outstanding competitors in high school, all three of these men were also premier players while at Gettysburg, holding a slew of records in the school's annals.

Capitani was a three-sport star in high school and continued the trend as a Bullet, earning three varsity letters each in football and baseball and two in basketball. Heralded as one of the top running backs in the region, Capitani finished his career as the all-time leader in rushing yards with 1,717 in just three seasons. He was given honorable mention on the Williamson All-America team; honorable mention Little All-America; Maxwell Club Award recipient; Associated Press

All-State two years in a row; and All-East junior and senior years. Capitani was no slouch on the other playing surfaces either, leading the basketball team in scoring as a sophomore and senior and setting school records on the diamond with a .521 batting average and 24 RBI in 1958, the former of which still stands today. He was inducted into the Gettysburg Hall of Athletic Honor in 1978.

Ercole was an outstanding two-sport athlete in his own right, earning three letters in football and four in baseball. As a senior halfback, Ercole, who nailed a school-record 51-yard field goal in high school, was named a team captain in 1982 and led the team in both receiving (353 yards) and punting (34.0 yards per punt), the latter for the third consecutive year. At the conclusion of his career on the gridiron, Ercole held a handful of Gettysburg kicking records, including extra point attempts made in a game (8), in a season (35), and in a career (63). In the spring, he was also a record-setter, breaking Capitani's RBI record with 30 in 1981, in addition to new school single-season marks for home runs (6) and slugging percentage (.667).

Snyder is still the greatest scoring receiver in Bullet history, holding the Gettysburg records for touchdowns scored in a game (3), in a season (11), and in a career (18). In 1964, a year in which the Bullets carried off the Middle Atlantic Conference University Division Championship, he pulled in 37 passes for 673 yards and 11 touchdowns. He was the leading collegiate scorer in Pennsylvania that year, and was named to the Lutheran All-American and All-Conference First Teams and was an honorable mention Little All-American. For two seasons he earned All-Conference status in baseball and finished his career with a .341 batting average and .991 fielding percentage as a catcher. Snyder is a member of the 1986 Hall of Athletic Honor class.

New Faces in Sports Information

by Corey Jewart,

Assistant Sports Information Director

If you make your way to a home athletic event, you might notice a pair of new faces patrolling the sidelines or manning the scorer's table. We would just like to take a moment to introduce you to the new people in charge of publicizing all of Gettysburg's 24 intercollegiate varsity athletic teams - Assistant Sports Information Director Corey Jewart (that's me) and Sports Information Director Braden Snyder.

So who are we? Coming out of Austin, Pa., I graduated from Allegheny College in Meadville, Pa. with a degree in history in 2004. From there, I went on to work at The College of Wooster in Ohio for two years, covering everything from conference soccer tournaments to NCAA Division III playoff games for football, men's basketball, and baseball. I returned to my alma mater in July 2006 as an assistant in the sports information office and this past May I was hired for the assistant position at Gettysburg. My first official day was June 11, which many might recall was the date of the 15th Annual Orange & Blue Golf Classic. After baking in the sun with Coach Streeter on the putting green, I jumped right in and began working on the fall athletic brochures, the football media guide, and whatever else needed done.

A native of Martinsburg, Pa., Braden Snyder emerged from a talented pool of candidates to take the director position vacated by Eric Lawrence, who is still in the area working for B2 Networks. Braden's first official day was August 6, and he has been busy getting acquainted with the Bullet athletic program. He was definitely familiar with Gettysburg prior to his hiring, having worked and graduated from Lebanon Valley College. A 2000 graduate with a degree in English, Braden was a multiple letterwinner with the Dutchmen cross country and track & field teams, earning co-MVP and team captain status in the latter. He went on to work in sports information at Towson University and Bucknell University from 2000 to 2002, before returning to his alma mater and taking over the reins as director for five years. While at Lebanon Valley, he covered the nationally-ranked field hockey program and served as chair of the Middle Atlantic Conference SID Committee. Currently, Braden resides in Thomasville, Pa.

Braden and I are excited to continue our careers with a great athletic program. We look forward to covering Gettysburg athletic teams and players in the coming years, as well as serving as a connection between the alumni and the school. Lastly, we would like to take a moment to recognize a few people who have made our transitions as smooth as possible. Special thanks go out to Jan Sharrah, Katie Eiden '06, Doug Sage '99, Susan Fumagalli, Kendra Martin, Patti Lawson, and Heather Sagaties '08.

The Bullet Quiz

Q: On September 8 against Hampden-Sydney, senior running back Tom Sturges became the fifth Bullet to gain 3,000 rushing yards in his career. Who are the other four Gettysburg alums with over 3,000 rushing yards and what year did they graduate?

A: Submit your answer by email to ahunt@gettysburg.edu by October 31 at 5 p.m. A winner will be chosen at random from all correct entries and will receive Gettysburg gear.

Where are they now?

Since their days as Gettysburg Bullets, alumni contribute to society in meaningful ways, many times through the simplest acts of service. Here's a quick look at one alumna:

Molly Gale '05

In her third year as a social studies teacher at Cousino High School in Warren, Mich., Molly Gale enthusiastically claims that her decision to attend Gettysburg College was the "best decision I ever made...I couldn't have been happier." Molly "loved" her time at Gettysburg where she majored in history and studied in Australia for a semester, while being a successful softball player.

As a successful educator, Molly will be presenting at the Hawaii International Conference on Education with Gettysburg College's associate professor of education, Jonelle Pool, where they will discuss "how pre-service teachers need to be exposed to more authentic reading and writing."

In addition to her work as an educator, Molly contributes to promoting health and wellness as a third-year high school varsity softball coach. Last year her team won districts and she was named "district coach of the year". She continues to have a love for her alma mater and remains engaged with the softball program. Molly, who is working on her master's in education, returns to campus a few times each year, especially for softball camp.

A humbled person with definite drive and ambition, this alumna knows she has been fortunate to be a Bullet!

Do great work

From the Director

Keeping it all in perspective

by Amy Hunt,

Orange & Blue Club Director

Many alumni, parents, and friends of Gettysburg College have a strong allegiance to athletics and give financial support and time to maintain and improve the program. Support comes from those who believe that athletic programs contribute in meaningful ways to enhance the overall experience for students at Gettysburg College.

The purpose of the Orange & Blue Club is to foster and support excellence in intercollegiate athletics at Gettysburg College. Kept in proper balance, vigorous, successful intercollegiate athletics contribute meaningfully to the traditional "Gettysburg experience." The mission of the Orange & Blue Club is to strengthen engagement with the College, and to maximize support for athletics in terms of both gifts and involvement. The Orange & Blue Club does this by involving alumni and parents in meaningful opportunities that will cultivate their engagement and support.

Athletics is deeply rooted for many alumni, parents, and friends, who share the belief that intercollegiate athletics contributes toward an enriching undergraduate experience, and is therefore worthy of support. Generosity of donors provides support to the College's 24 varsity athletic programs, thus enhancing the overall athletic experience.

In 2006-07, donors contributed nearly $345,000 to the Orange & Blue Club, which was a record year and surpassed the budgeted goals for the year by nearly $35,000. For the second consecutive year, the College is thrilled to report that its single largest one-day fundraising event for Bullet athletics, the O&B Golf Classic, surpassed all previous years by contributing over $56,000 to Orange & Blue.

The support of donors to Gettysburg College and athletics through the Orange & Blue Club is greatly appreciated. There is so much we can do with the steadfast support of so many, which helps us make a difference each and every day!

Ways to give

by Amy Hunt,

Orange & Blue Club Director

The Orange & Blue Club provides financial and other kinds of support to the intercollegiate athletics program at Gettysburg College, while promoting athletics as an integral part of contributing to a positive and enriching experience for students at the College.

Your support of through a gift to Orange & Blue is critical to maintain Gettysburg's high level of athletic excellence within the Centennial Conference and within NCAA Division III that has become a tradition for Bullet student-athletes. All funds raised through gifts to the Orange & Blue Club are tax deductible and directly benefit athletics at Gettysburg College.

Orange & Blue levels of membership

Gold Medallist: $1,500 and above

Silver Medalist: $500-$1,499

Bronze Medalist: $100-$499

Member: $25-$99

Make your gift online

Visit the Gettysburg College homepage at www.gettysburg.edu and make your contribution to the Orange & Blue Club. Select Make a Gift from the choices at the top of the page and scroll down to Orange & Blue. You can select either a general donation to be used where O&B needs it most, or you can designate your gift to a specific sport.

Your contribution will allow us to continue the great tradition of athletics at Gettysburg College by providing our student-athletes with the training, coaching, equipment, and experience to compete at the highest level. Thank you for your continued support.
