Inside: La Envoy. The 21st annual recurrence of the date of the organization of the Adams Rifles, formed at the early outburst of the Rebellion through the spontaneous uprising of our citizens for border defence [sic], recalling as it does memories and associations of a most interesting and stirring character, and tending to kindle, inflame and cherish sentiments of patriotic devotion, and by force of common sympathy to strengthen the bonds of fraternity and union, affords a fitting occasion for this Reunion. And at it may good cheer and social intercourse with the recalling and recounting by comrades of personal incidents and reminiscences of the war period, now long happily past, cause our thus gathering together to be cherished by all as a "red letter day" in life's history. To that end all are cordially invited to attend and participate. The Committee.
