Thank you for your interest in Dog Days!

Please return this completed form (electronically or hard copy) to Carrol Hoover at Counseling Services, Box 424, in order to be an “official participant” (with all of the attendant privileges and prestige).

We will meet on Mondays and Wednesdays, 5:15-6:15, for the first two weeks of classes. We'll provide doggie treats, water for the dogs, and poop bags.

Please come to at least two meetings (and, preferably, more!). Otherwise, the students are disappointed when you and your pooch don’t come back: the students come to have their “favorites.”

Thank you for joining in this. See you there!

Kathy Bradley, Ph.D.

Note that the College has approved employees to leave work at 4 p.m. on these dates if you need to return home to pick up your pooch(es) and so long as you have your supervisor’s permission.

Dog Days Certification, Release, and Indemnification

I acknowledge that I am voluntarily participating as a dog owner for a project at Gettysburg College entitled Dog Days.

I certify that my dog is current with all vaccines and has no known history of aggression or biting that has required medical and/or legal intervention, and has shown itself to be non-aggressive in the company of people and other dogs.

I agree to keep my dog on a leash at all times during Dog Days and to pick up any residual waste.

I acknowledge and will abide by Gettysburg College’s policy prohibiting dogs in College-owned buildings.

I accept liability for my dog as a participant in this project. I will assume all risks and responsibility for any injuries or damages caused by my dog, and I do hereby release and discharge Gettysburg College from any and all claims, demands, damages, rights or action or causes of action present or future, whether the same be known, anticipated or unanticipated resulting from or arising out of these activities.

Additionally, in exchange for and in consideration of the College's permission for my dog to participate in these activities, I agree further to hold harmless and indemnify the College, its trustees, officers, agents and employees from any and all liability, actions, causes of action, negligence, debts, claims or demands of any kind and nature whatsoever (including attorneys’ fees and costs) arising out of these activities.
