Kathy Ambrose

Kathy has worked in the Education Department since 2005 and has been with the College for 13 years. She previously worked in Accounts Payable. Her first job was at Hillcrest Restaurant between Gettysburg and Littlestown. She then worked at ACNB for many years before giving birth to twins. Kathy enjoys helping the students in the Education Department and likes their appreciation in return.

Rebecca Barth

Becca has worked for Gettysburg College for 9 years. She currently works at the Center for Career Development, but had previously worked in the History and Classics Departments. Becca has been taking courses at Gettysburg for many years and has only two more classes to go. She will graduate in December with a BA in Classics and Africana Studies, and a minor in Anthropology. Becca thinks the Gettysburg College community is amazing. “You can always count on people to come together to get things done or when there is a special need.”
Carol Coon

Carol recently celebrated 20 years with Gettysburg College. She began work with Transportation in 1995, then moved to Theatre Arts in 1997. Carol was a member of the Comprehensive Climate Study Working Group and will continue to serve as a member of the Climate Study Implementation Group. In the past, she served one term on the Support Staff Council. In her spare time, Carol enjoys theatre, music, and gardening. She has been a member of the Gettysburg Civic Chorus since 1995, serves as the board secretary, and sings second soprano, along with other Gettysburg College employees.

Jennifer Hance

Jennifer has worked in Infrastructure and Computing for 5 years. She also works part-time Security at Cross Keys Village – The Brethren Home. Previously she has worked in the IT field at Penn State Harrisburg and the Federal Communications Commission. In her spare time she enjoys fine art and photography, and takes photography courses at the HACC Wildwood Campus. Jennifer is also in the process of remodelling her new home and creating a photo studio. On campus Jennifer likes helping and teaching students, faculty, employees, and parents, and especially likes making her co-workers laugh.
Sue Holz

Sue started with the College 15 years ago in the Department of Economics. She worked for Allstate Insurance, Mayo Clinic, and CPM Inc in Arizona before moving to Gettysburg. She also works part-time at the Courtyard by Marriott. Sue has three grown sons -- the oldest is married (to a Gettysburg alum) and lives in Colorado, the second is at the University of Chicago working on his PhD in Public Policy, and the third is in New York working as a strength and conditioning coach. Sue is not only an employee but also a student at Gettysburg and is close to earning her degree in Art Studio.

Edith Pigeon

Edith has been with the College for 11 years. She is currently in Parent Relations, but has also worked in Capital Giving/Major Gifts, Research, Advancement Services, Donors Relations, Stewardship, and IT. She and her husband Neil have two wonderful daughters, ages 13 and 7. Edith volunteers with the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation (to support her daughter), the Parents Advisory Council at Gettysburg Middle School, PTO board member and volunteer at the elementary school, Church, Girl Scouts, and Habitat for Humanity. Edith likes getting to know the students, alums, and parents.
Amy Smith

Amy started in the Office of the Provost over two years ago. Shortly after graduating from Lock Haven, she began working as the Administrative Assistant for the Secretary of Agriculture. Several years later, she moved within the department and became an Executive Secretary with the State Conservation Commission. Amy is so grateful for the opportunity to work at Gettysburg College. “I’ve never worked anywhere where there was such a sense of community.” Amy’s position in the Provost’s Office provides her with new challenges and opportunities each day.

Denise Shaffer

Denise’s experience at Gettysburg began with her daughter’s college search in 2003. She came to us in November 2013 with a 10-year higher education background. Hired as an Administrative Assistant, she currently supports the College Life Office, the Garthwait Leadership Center, the Women’s Center, and is the backup scheduler for 25Live. Denise lives with her husband Randy and their dog Lilly. She has three grown children. Her family also includes many students who affectionately call her “Momma D.” Denise loves to bake and often shares the goodies with co-workers and students.
Miranda has worked in Musselman Library for 12 years. She has been working toward her degree from Gettysburg and is three courses away from graduating with Honors in Sociology. Miranda and her husband Eric live in Bonneauville. They have one son and are in the process of adopting a second child. Miranda enjoys the community atmosphere and network of support at Gettysburg. “We are well cared for and work to take care of each other. I have had opportunities while working at Gettysburg College that I’m confident I would never have gotten anywhere else.”
