

Federal Perkins Loans

The Federal Perkins Loan program is funded by the federal government and administered by the College. This loan program is designed to assist qualified students with paying for the cost of education. Funds are awarded to eligible students as part of the Financial Aid process.

Interest Rate: 5%

Repayment Period: 10 years maximum

Grace Period: 9 months

In order for the student to accept the Federal Perkins Loan as assistance for payment of the student account and to be in compliance with the federal regulations, the student must complete the following steps:

A Federal Perkins Master Promissory Note (MPN)

A Total Loan Indebtedness Disclosure (TLID)

An entrance counseling session

A loan interview

Students who have been awarded a Federal Perkins loan by the Financial Aid Office at Gettysburg College, may complete the required process by logging on to the following website and creating an account.

<https://ipromise.campuspartners.com/> These documents may be e-Signed by using the students Federal Pin number (this is the same pin number that is used to sign the FAFSA).

This information must be completed before the initial disbursement of Perkins loan funds.

Exit Interview Counseling

Any student who has received a Federal Perkins loan during his/her time at Gettysburg College and leaves the college for any reason must complete the Exit interview process. Students may complete this process by logging onto the following site and creating an account based on information that should already be in the system.
