CAMP DIRECTOR

JOHN CAMPO

John Campo is in his 23rd season as Gettysburg College's head baseball coach. In twenty-one years his teams have won 388 games including four league titles, one conference championship, one NCAA Division III playoff berth, and two ECAC playoff berths. Sixty-five of his players have received All Conference recognition, as well as fourteen All East players, three conference MVP's, two All American's and one professional draft choice. Campo has twice been selected as conference Coach of the Year. He is a 1977 graduate of the University of Delaware and has been in the coaching profession for thirty-three years.

CAMP STAFF

The Gettysburg College Baseball Camp staff is composed of college and high school coaches as well as collegiate players. All staff members are excellent teachers of the game and are committed to the development of young players.

I hereby authorize a representative of Gettysburg College Baseball Camp to take my child to a physician or hospital, should the need arise. I also understand that my insurance is primary if medical attention is required.

CAMP OBJECTIVES:

The Gettysburg College Baseball Camp is run by professional coaches who have combined years of teaching and coaching baseball on all levels of competition from Little League to college.

The objective of the camp is to provide a positive baseball experience for all campers. It aims to accomplish this through improving each camper's skills and knowledge of the game so the camper leaves as an improved baseball player.

All participants will have an opportunity to improve in each phase of the game through:

- * Individualized practice
- * Team/game situations
- * Players grouped according to age and ability
- * Physical Conditioning and Training
- * Fundamental drill work by position
  - Infield Play
  - Outfield Play
  - Pitching
  - Catching
- * Batting instruction and techniques
- * Offensive techniques
  - Batting
  - Bunting
  - Base running
- * Pitching instruction
