

HISTORY

Sub-Saharan Africa: The History Department at Gettysburg College invites applications for a tenure-track joint appointment with the College's Africana Studies program at the rank of Assistant Professor beginning August 2010. Teaching responsibilities include modern World History, Sub-Saharan Africa survey course, upper-division courses in areas of specialization, and contributions to the College's Africana Studies program. The Ph.D. degree, previous teaching experience, and evidence of scholarly promise are preferred. Review of applications will begin on December 1, 2009. Please send a letter of application, curriculum vitae, and three letters of recommendation to African History Search Committee Chair, Department of History, Gettysburg College, 300 N. Washington Street, Gettysburg, PA 17325. Application materials received electronically will not be accepted.

Gettysburg College is a highly selective liberal arts college located within 90 minutes of the Baltimore/Washington metropolitan area. Established in 1832, the College has a rich history and is situated on a 220-acre campus with an enrollment of over 2,600 students. Gettysburg College celebrates diversity and welcomes applications from members of any group that has been historically underrepresented in the American academy. The College assures equal employment opportunity and prohibits discrimination on the basis of race, color, national origin, gender, religion, sexual orientation, age, and disability.