Great proposals clearly convey the qualifications of the author and the significance of the project. In this workshop, we will expand upon Jeanne Narum's presentation, Starting with an Audacious Idea, by reading project statements through the eyes of a reviewer. HOMEWORK: Email a brief (100-200 word) statement of something you want to accomplish in the next 3-5 years to rosenbe@gettysburg.edu and bring a copy with you as well. Those who participated in the September workshop and wish to use the statement developed in preparation for that session need not email it again.

The workshop is co-sponsored by the Johnson Center for Creative Teaching, the Provost's Office, and the Division of Development and Alumni and Parent Relations. To register for the workshop, RSVP to Wendee Dunlap (wdunlap@gettysburg.edu).

For more information, contact Rick Rosenberg or Elizabeth Richardson Viti (eviti@gettysburg.edu). PLEASE MARK YOUR CALENDARS NOW!
