The narrative material in this volume was written by the following members of the faculty of Gettysburg College: Robert L. Bloom, Basil L. Crapster, Harold A. Dunkelberger, Charles H. Glatfelter, Richard T. Mara, Norman E. Richardson, and W. Richard Schubart.

The editors especially thank Professors Bloom and Crapster for many services above and beyond the call of duty; John H. Knickerbocker for his assistance as Librarian of Gettysburg College; Dorothy S. Bloom and Catharine W. Houston for helpfulness in the physical production of the book. Patrick W. Barclay contributed the drawings of features of the Gothic cathedral; Robert L. Bloom the maps; and Richard T. Mara the drawings in Chapter VIII.

A compilation such as this is impossible without the permission of many authors and publishers to use material which is protected by copyright. Due notice of such permission is given where the various source selections occur.

Last, but not least, the editors note that this volume could not have been produced without the full cooperation of the administrative officials of Gettysburg College.
