BEFORE THE CLOCK STRIKES 12…: As you may have noticed, Bullet Points is being sent a day earlier than usual. That's because it's the last day of the 2013 tax year, so we wanted to provide a friendly reminder to make your tax-deductible gifts to your preferred philanthropic organizations before midnight tonight! Of course, we hope that one of your priorities is Gettysburg College and we thank you in advance for including us in your generosity.

- To make a Gettysburg Fund or Orange & Blue Club gift go to www.gettysburg.edu/onlinegiving, where you can make a secure, on-line gift. Mailing instructions, as well as other information, can also be found there.
- If you’d like to speak “live” to someone, call 800-238-5528 by 1 p.m. (EST) today.
- Every gift matters! The percentage of Gettysburgians who support their alma mater is the sole factor in how “alumni satisfaction” is perceived by some outside organizations, such as U.S. News & World Report. So whether the gift is for $5 or $50,000, every gift DOES make a difference!
- The 1832 Society is composed of those who have made the College the beneficiary of a planned gift. See the list of more than 350 loyal alumni, parents and friends who have done so.

Thank you again for your connection to, and support of, Gettysburg College.

MARK THAT CALENDAR: Now that you’re poised to hang your new 2014 calendar(s) on the fridge/office wall/bulletin board (or update your digital device), here are some G-burg dates to include:

- FEB. 1 – Application deadline for potential Class of 2018 members
- MARCH 8-16 – Spring Break (for students)
- APRIL 7 – Gettysburg College Founders Day – Happy No. 182, G-burg!
- MAY 17-18 – Commencement Weekend
- MAY 29-JUNE 1 – Alumni College/Reunion Weekend
- JUNE 11-15 – Gettysburg Festival (arts, music, culture) on campus and in town
- JUNE 13-15 – First “Alumni Family Weekend” for alumni with kids/grandkids (see below for more info)
- SEPT. 1 – First day of classes
- SEPT. 19-21 – Homecoming Weekend & Campaign Launch Celebration
- OCT. 31-NOV. 2 – Family Weekend
- NOV. 19 – 151st Anniversary of Lincoln’s Gettysburg Address (Dedication Day)
GETTYSBURG GREATS IN THE NEWS:

- David Houck '43 P’68 and his wife, Marie, celebrated their 70th wedding anniversary on Dec. 15. Congratulations! The Gettysburg Times did a front-page feature on them for the occasion.
- Jack Bream '57 presented his 10th annual “Leadership Program” for fraternity and sorority leaders in the Lyceum last month.
- Paul Corneilson '83 is in the midst of a 20+ year project to compile and edit the complete works of composer C.P.E. Bach. He was interviewed recently by BACH Magazine to discuss his position as managing editor of the project, a role he took on in 1999.
- The family of Scott Kremp '87 was portrayed in a recent episode of the ABC comedy “The Goldbergs.” The Kremps were the real-life neighbors of the Goldberg family 25 years ago, and the show’s creator/writer – Adam Goldberg – and Scott’s brother, Chad Kremp, remain best friends to this day. Read more.
- The Baltimore Business Journal named Kenneth Clark ’99 as one of its “Top 40 Under 40.” Read more about him and his company.
- Garden & Gun Magazine featured the business (Haypenny Confections) of Danielle (Ballinger) Loveless ’04 and her husband in its “Made in the South Awards” in the food category.
- The Economist named “Gettysburg: The Last Invasion,” by Allen Guelzo (Gburg Professor of Civil War Era Studies) as one of its top books of 2013.

AROUND TOWN & CAMPUS:

- The movie “1000 To 1: The Cory Weissman Story,” will be available on DVD beginning March 4. Learn more about the film, which is based on the inspirational, real-life experience of Cory Weissman ’12, a Gettysburg basketball player who suffered a devastating stroke as a freshman. The majority of the film was shot on the Gettysburg College campus in Oct., 2012.
- The College’s highly successful partnership with Philadelphia Futures was highlighted in a front-page Philadelphia Inquirer story.
- Continuing a customary campus tradition, fraternities decked out their houses for Christmas. See how they looked, as well as other scenes from around town and campus.
- It was another interesting, exciting, and successful year for Gettysburg College and our students, faculty, staff, alumni, and friends in 2013. Check out The Lucky 13 of ‘13: Top moments from the past year.
- The Sunderman Conservatory's Wind Symphony will travel to China in January to perform a series of concerts. In addition, receptions for alumni, parents and friends will be held in Beijing (Jan. 7) and Shanghai (Jan. 12) that will feature President Janet Morgan Riggs ’77, who is joining the group on the trip. Contact Allison Singley (asingley@gettysburg.edu) for more info.
- Michael Eric Dyson will be the keynote speaker at the 34th Annual Martin Luther King Jr. Celebration in Christ Chapel on campus on Monday, Jan. 20. Learn more.
- English professor Chris Fee wrote a powerful, and personal, piece about homelessness for the Huffington Post.
- The 2nd annual Twilight Walk will take place on Friday, Jan. 24. The entire First Year class is invited that night to process from the CUB Ballroom to the north steps of Penn Hall, where it will serenade President Riggs with the Alma Mater. Janet will also deliver brief remarks, welcoming members of the Class of 2017 into the Alumni Association, for which they qualify by virtue of successfully completing their first semester. Read about the inaugural event in 2013.

“BACK TO THE FUTURE” WEEKEND: Have you been looking for an opportunity to bring your kids/grandkids back to Gettysburg to show off the campus and town? If so, we’ve got the perfect weekend for you! June 13-15, 2014 will mark the first-ever “Alumni Family Weekend” on campus! Highlights will include:

- The opportunity to stay in the residence halls and eat at Servo.
- Activities designed for kids of all ages, including sports clinics, classroom experiences and a college-search info session for older children, along with unstructured opportunities to take advantage of campus resources.
- Gettysburg Festival offerings – music, art, culture – that take place right on campus.
- Learn more and start making plans now to attend. Encourage your friends to do the same, and it’s a great chance to see G-burg friends from class years other than your own!

CAREER CORNER

- The next Career Webinar available to alumni and current students will be Wed., January 8, when author Ben Casnocha presents a session on “Career Entrepreneurism.” Learn more and register.
- In 2010 the Center for Career Development (CCD) set a goal of creating 1,832 career-related opportunities for students by 2015. Thanks to generous and supportive alumni, parents and friends, that goal was smashed with the creation of 3,000 opportunities. So, a new goal has been set. See what it is and learn how you can help.
- Pete Barrett ’15 (who may be the President of ESPN one day…) reviewed Career Beam, the CCD’s newest offering for current students and alumni. See what he’s got to say.

FEATURED VIDEO: Our Happy Holidays video was released recently and quickly became our most-watched video of the year. Take a few minutes to view all of the Top Videos of 2013. Additionally, the annual Winter Choral Concert took place on December 6. Watch the video archive of the event.

TRIVIA TIME: When was the last January Term held at Gettysburg College? A t-shirt goes to the first person to email alumni@gettysburg.edu with the correct answer.

Congratulations to last month’s winner, Alice Wolfkill ’12, who was first to correctly answer that the College’s office of development celebrated its 60th birthday in December.
Happy New Year! Download your January Desktop Calendar. You can also download a collection of Gettysburg College images to use as your screensaver.
