The Civil War Institute (CWI) at Gettysburg College presents a conference each summer which consists of lectures, group discussions, battlefield tours, and other special activities. The CWI has sponsored this summer conference since 1983, and 250-300 people attend every year.

SCHOLARSHIP INFORMATION

Scholarships to attend the annual Civil War Institute summer conference are available for high school sophomores, juniors, and seniors. A full scholarship covers a shared air-conditioned dorm room, meals for the duration of the conference, and tuition fees. Transportation costs are not included.

Students who have a genuine interest in the Civil War may apply for a scholarship by filling out the form below and providing the following:

(1) Two letters of recommendation (one from your history teacher and one from your guidance counselor).

(2) A letter describing your interest in the Civil War and why you feel the Civil War Institute summer conference would benefit you.

Applications must be received by February 15, 2016.
