Please note the following with regard to a faculty member’s office and computer:

The growth in size of the College’s faculty in recent years places a severe constraint on the institution with regard to office space for tenured or tenure-track faculty as well as for non-tenure-track individuals placed in term appointments. For this reason, the Provost’s Office cannot guarantee a faculty member the use of her or his office while she or he is on sabbatical. Indeed, anyone hired as a full-time replacement for a faculty member on leave will, in most cases, be placed in the faculty member’s office.
