Biography

David Woods was student who attended Gettysburg College on the G.I. Bill, after serving in the Army as a crypto technician in the Philippines. He graduated from the college in 1952. Born on April 25, 1929, he was the great-great-grandson of Samuel Simon Schmucker, who founded Gettysburg College and the Gettysburg Lutheran Seminary.

At Gettysburg College, he was a physics major. He was very active in extracurricular activities including the Rifle Team and Spanish Club. He was on the staff of “Mercury,” which was a literary magazine. He was a member of Tau Kappa Epsilon and the Outing Club. He was president of the TKE Alumni Association of Gettysburg College. He participated in ROTC. He was also in the Arnold Society, a national honor society for ROTC members.

Following graduation, he earned his master’s degree and graduate work from Penn State. He also became president of the Adams County Shrine Club, a life member of Gettysburg Elks Lodge 1045, a life member of American Legion Post 202, Gettysburg, a member of Good Samaritan Lodge 336, Gettysburg, a member of the Kent Island, MD Yacht Club and the Zembo Shrine Yacht Club. He earned his Captain’s License from the U.S. Coast Guard.

He was a teacher for the Gettysburg Area School System, retiring in 1989. Woods was also a veteran of the U.S. Air Force Reserves, retiring in 1972 as a major after 20 years of service. He was married to Virginia Arlene Kressman Woods. David Woods died on August 22, 2003.
Scope and Content Notes

The David Woods Collections consists primarily of letters Woods wrote during his time serving in the Army, stationed in the Philippines. The letters are from August 1, 1946 to September 10, 1947. He was a consistent writer and sent letters home usually at least once a week. A concerned man, he frequently apologizes to his parents, and for not writing more often. All of the letters, except one, are addressed to his family, including his mother, Margaret McGaughy Woods, his father, David Walker Woods II and his little brother, William A. Woods. He liked to take photos and send them home, and he mentions a few times how thankful he is for the camera his father sent him. The collection does not include any letters that he received back from his family or friends.

The collection also includes a copy of the Schmucker Ancestry and a death notice of Mrs. Mary S. Schmucker. A price list of popular photography in 1947 and a letter addressed to Mrs. and Mr. Woods in 1980. There are two Gettysburg College publications including a commencement ceremony program from 1951 and a ten-year reunion program for the class of 1952.

His artifacts include a scrapbook with photos from his military services. The scrapbook is about half full, with photos of Woods and his fellow servicemen. It does not have any photos from his time spent at Gettysburg College. Also included are seven small political pins, a slide ruler and a metal compass, in the original case.
