This event is sponsored by the Sanders Endowment Fund established by the University of Alabama in 1996 to memorialize its 19th-century Corps of Cadets. John Caldwell Calhoun Sanders, Class of 1861, became one of the “Boy Generals” of the Confederacy.

Guests are invited to view the Civil War lithographs displayed on the Mezzanine of the Alabama Museum of Natural History.

J.C.C. SANDERS LECTURE SERIES

“Confederate Voices”

Saturday, April 4, 2015

Hosted by
The University of Alabama
Alabama Museum of Natural History and
The W.S. Hoole Special Collections Library

10:00
Welcome, Opening Remarks and Presentations
The 2015 recipients of the Robert E. Lee Leadership Award:
Cadet Gregory Hacker, US Army ROTC
Cadet Thomas C. Hemmings, US Air Force ROTC

10:10
Dr. Peter Carmichael
“A Plea for Peace: The Literary Style of Semi-Literate Confederate”

11:00
Dr. Aaron Sheehan-Dean
“The Justice of our Cause: Confederate Perceptions of Violence and Morality”

11:50
Landon Cabell Garland Miller
JCC Sanders Memorial Service

Noon
Lunch

1:00
Professor Brian Holden Reid
“Robert E. Lee as Military Leader”

Civil War Prints are available for sale in the lobby Alabama Corps of Cadets “Call to Battle” University of Alabama, April 3, 1865 By Civil War Artist John Paul Strain