DEDICATE: The annual Dedication Day festivities will take place in Gettysburg on Thursday, Nov. 19.

- The occasion marks the anniversary of Lincoln delivering his Gettysburg Address at the dedication of the National Cemetery in 1863, four months after the battle, at the invitation of Gettysburg alumnus David Wills, Class of 1850.
- The keynote speaker at ceremonies at the National Cemetery at 10 a.m. on Nov. 19 is Garrison Keillor, who is stepping down after this season from his popular “A Prairie Home Companion” on NPR. The event is free and open to the public, and includes a variety of additional speakers, including Gettysburg President Janet Morgan Riggs ’77.
- The 54th Annual Fortenbaugh Lecture will be at 7:00 that night, delivered by Dr. Joseph Glatthaar in the Majestic Theater.
- It’s always a special day to be in Gettysburg, so if you’re looking for a late-week excuse to be here, we highly recommend attending the Nov. 19 festivities!

- See the latest news, learn about the five priorities of the Campaign, and see how you can make a difference – ALL gifts count and matter!

TRIVIA TIME: Following World War II, enrollment swelled with returning veterans who came to Gettysburg, many on the GI Bill. As a result, several barracks (aka “temporary dormitories”) were built off of West Lincoln Avenue to house male students (and in some cases, their families). In what year were the barracks removed? A t-shirt goes to the first person to email alumni@gettysburg.edu with the correct answer.

Congratulations to last month’s winner, Jessica Basta ’07, whose guess of 4,832 “career-related experiences” created through the Center for Career Development’s five-year “Career Connector Challenge” was closest to the actual number of 6,067 experiences created. All the other guesses were less than hers. Thanks to all the volunteers who helped create that astounding number, and see some highlights of the program.
