THE CORY STORY: The movie “1000 to 1: The Cory Weissman Story,” which dramatizes the real-life tale of Gettysburg College basketball player Cory Weissman’s inspirational return to the court following a debilitating stroke as a freshman, is here!

- The movie will premiere at The Majestic Theater in Gettysburg on Saturday, March 1, when a full house is expected for an invitation-only screening followed by a Q&A with several of the actors in the film.
- The following day (3/2), the public can see the film at the Majestic at 3 p.m.
- The movie won’t be released theatrically, but DVD copies of it will be available beginning Tuesday, March 4. Reserve your copy on Amazon now.
- Cory’s dramatic comeback is a memorable moment for many Gettysburgians. Tell us your favorite Gettysburg College athletic moment for a chance to win a “1000 to 1” DVD and script signed by actor Beau Bridges and the film’s producers. Simply submit your memory to movie1000to1@gettysburg.edu by noon on March 4; the winning entry will be chosen randomly.

BREAKING GOOD: Gettysburg students will be on spring break March 8-16. In addition to visits to traditional spring break destinations (and no, Ft. Lauderdale no longer makes the “favorites” list!), many alternative trips will be taken by various groups. Here’s a sampling:

- The College Choir will perform concerts in SC (Charleston, Rock Hill), NC (Southport), VA (Lynchburg, Salem) and PA (Lansdale) during the break. See a full schedule and get more details.
- The Center for Public Service has organized service learning trips to Nicaragua, the Dominican Republic, New York City, Baltimore and the Great Smoky Mts. in TN, where students will engage with the five local communities as volunteers. Learn more.
- The women’s lacrosse team – ranked #6 nationally – travels to the Orlando area for two games; baseball will play 10 games in Ft. Myers, FL; softball will play the same number in Myrtle Beach, SC; and both tennis teams will play four matches apiece in Hilton Head, SC. Men’s lacrosse, ranked #20, will travel as far south as Lynchburg, VA, for a game on March 8. See additional details on Bullet athletics.

GETTYSBURG GREATS IN THE NEWS:

- Patrick Noonan ’65 was presented with a national award by the Audubon Society for his environmental leadership over many decades. Read more.
- Scott Palmer ’72 was named the Equine Medical Director for the state of NY. He’s been a renowned equine veterinarian in NJ for three decades, and has consulted on many Triple Crown horse races. Read more.
- Jen Fisher Bryant ’82 received three national awards for her most recent book, “A Splash of Red: The Life and Art of Horace Pippin.” Learn more.
- Rob Tempel ’87 was promoted to Major General in the US Army and will serve as Chief of the Dental Corps and Assistant Surgeon General for Dental Services.
- Kathy Cotton Beatty ’89 was named Outstanding Mathematics Educator of the Year in VA.
- Jasen and Shannon (Sweitzer) Jones ’04, who were both involved with theater at Gettysburg, have started a company in the Philadelphia area that provides home beer-pairing dinner parties. Read a review.

AROUND TOWN & CAMPUS:

- Allen Guelzo, professor of history and director of Civil War Era Studies at Gettysburg, was featured in a compelling, 13-minute interview with David Gregory on Meet the Press last month. See the video.
- Three weeks after the Meet the Press interview, Guelzo was co-winner of the annual Lincoln Prize for his latest book, “Gettysburg: The Last Invasion.” Read more.
- Thanks to everyone who made the Trustee 360 Challenge such a smashing success! More than $1 million was raised in 36 hours via nearly 1,500 gifts, including matches from several Trustees. See the full details.
- Pres. Riggs ’77 authored an op-ed for the Huffington Post about the value of a liberal arts education. Read "An Investment Worth Making."
- The men’s swim team won its 4th consecutive Centennial Conference Championship, while the women finished 2nd to highlight the winter sports season. Four men will compete March 19-22 at the NCAA Championships in Indianapolis. Women’s basketball reached the CC semifinals, while a young men’s team finished 6th in the conference, one spot out of the playoffs. Wrestling finished 7th out of nine teams in the CC Championships, while the indoor track & field teams will compete in the CC Championships at Haverford this weekend. Catch up on all the G-burg sports news.
• Alpha Chi Rho and Alpha Phi Omega will hold the inaugural Anything Is Paulssible 5K Run/Walk on March 23. Learn more about the event, which has been organized in memory of Paul Detweiler ’15, a student who lost his battle with a brain tumor over the summer.
• The relatively new, fashionably Orange & Blue “Servo Truck” was featured in Food Director Magazine.

GREEN GRASS & HIGH TEMPS FOREVER: The way this winter has been for most of the country, it sure is nice to take a moment to think about spring, warmer temperatures and the green grass of a golf course! Speaking of which…

• The 22nd annual Sara Lee/Butter Krust Baking Gettysburg College Golf Classic will be played at the Hanover Country Club on Friday, May 30, and you’re invited to take part!
• The morning flight is sold out, but slots remain for the afternoon (1:15 shotgun start) session. Additionally, non-playing sponsorship opportunities abound for this event, which raises funds for Gettysburg College athletics through the Orange & Blue Club.
• Learn more and register online now, before it’s completely sold out.
• Also, if you’ve got a potential item to donate to the silent auction that accompanies the event (eg., round of golf at a prestigious club, vacation accommodations, sports memorabilia, special “insider” experience of some sort), please contact Josh Azer at jazer@gettysburg.edu or call 717-337-6398. Thank you!

CAREER CORNER: Research says that the vast majority of job offers come via networking. Learn how to network effectively via our next free Career Webinar (Wed., March 5 at 8 p.m. EST), which will feature author Ivan Misner providing proven tips, strategies, and techniques that will enable you to build a powerful personal network. Learn more and register for this webinar, and/or receive reminders of upcoming topics. Alumni, parents and students are all welcome.

CENTENARIAN SADNESS: We’re saddened to report the recent loss of our two oldest alumni. Pastor William Karns ’32, who was also the oldest living graduate of the Lutheran Theological Seminary at Gettysburg, passed away on Dec. 29 at the age of 104. Mildred Dimmerling “Dimi” Johnson ’33 P’61’64’65 was 102 when she passed at the Lutheran Home in Gettysburg on Feb. 18. We extend our heartfelt sympathies to both families.
FEATURED VIDEO:

TRIVIA TIME: Since it’s the month of St. Patrick’s Day, we’ll ask … For whom is Patrick Hall named, and by what name was that dorm known for its first 10 years (1959-1969)? A t-shirt goes to the first person to email alumni@gettysburg.edu with the correct answer.

Congratulations to last month’s winners, Betsy (Shierloh) Maltby ’87 and Heather (Baldwin) Ross ’04. Betsy was first to be within 50 of the correct answer (1,837 married G-burg alumni couples), while Heather was closest to the right answer with her symbolically guessed 1,832 (our founding year). Both Betsy and Heather are part of G-burg couples themselves!
