FALL IN: Few things are more beautiful than the fall on the Gettysburg College campus. Here are some happenings to make the season even more special:

- Homecoming Weekend is in progress as Bullet Points is being sent. A new addition to the festivities this year is the Gettysburg Fun(d) Run, which kicked off one minute ago. But if you're reading this now and would like to take part virtually, you can still do so. [Read how!]
- The month closes with Family Weekend Oct. 28-30, and highlights include Family College classes, the Jazz Ensemble concert at the Majestic Theater, a Civil War Tour of campus, and a Student Showcase by performing arts students. [See the full schedule and register.]
- The 2nd weekend of the 52nd Annual National Apple Harvest Festival is Oct. 8-9. Learn more about it, and see the ever-expanding list of accommodations and restaurants in the area. And whether or not apples are your thing, visiting Gettysburg is always a great thing to do.
- Dedication Day – the anniversary of Lincoln’s Gettysburg Address – is commemorated each Nov. 19 with a moving, morning ceremony at the National Cemetery in Gettysburg. This year’s keynote speaker, joining the ranks of Steven Spielberg, Ken Burns, and Tom Brokaw to name a few, is actor LeVar Burton. The day-long series of events – on a Saturday this year – culminates with the College’s 55th annual Fortenbaugh Lecture.

GETTYSBURG GREATS IN THE NEWS:

- Jason McCaffrey ’94 has a cool job – he’s Patagonia’s Director of Surf. [Read about] what the dude does and how he got there.
- Amy Hinton Tingle ’91 traveled more than 8,000 miles via a 16-foot vintage caravan this summer to bring books to communities across the U.S. via her Tiny Book Show, a mobile museum of miniature books. Learn more about her enterprise, [The Creativity Caravan], which works with schools, libraries,
• Seth Statler ’83, the top lobbyist for NASA, was selected to DC’s “50 Most Beautiful People” list, coming in at No. 7. See more.
• Peter Barnes ’78 P’20, a Superior Court Judge in NJ, granted sole custody to the woman who has a child with accused NY/NJ bomber Ahmad Khan Rahami. Read more.
• Brad Hunt ’72 is the focus of a lengthy Q&A in the Journal of Roots Music magazine. Read the piece.
• Ron Paul ’57, former Presidential candidate, spoke to a capacity crowd in the CUB Ballroom on Sept. 29. While here (for Lambda Chi’s 100th Anniversary Celebration), the 1989 Distinguished Alumni recipient also met with several student groups and spoke in a Public Policy class.

AROUND TOWN & CAMPUS:

• The next “Learn @ Lunch” installment will feature former Provost and current Philosophy professor Dan DeNicola on TUESDAY, OCT. 4 at 12:00 (EDT). Visit the College’s Facebook page (you don’t need an account yourself) to watch the dulcet-toned DeNicola talk about his forthcoming book, Understanding Ignorance: The Intricacy and Impact of What We Do Not Know.
• Susan Eisenhower, Chair Emeritus of the College’s Eisenhower Institute, was recognized in Normandy this summer with the French Legion of Honor, the country’s highest order for military and civil merits. Read all about it. Her grandfather, Dwight D. Eisenhower, was born 126 years ago on Oct. 14.
• Here for Homecoming this weekend? If so, use the hashtag #gettysburggreat to share the fun with your friends and others!
• A Gettysburg College junior was selected by the State Department to intern at the U.S. Embassy in Panama this summer. Read Amanda Krehbiel’s story.
• Would you like to nominate someone for an Alumni Association Award (Distinguished, Meritorious Service, Young Alumni Service, Young Alumni Career)? If so, please do so online by Nov. 11. Thank you!
• We’re saddened by the news that Jack Myers (aka “Mr. Servo” for 25 years), husband of Grace (In Greek) Myers, passed away on Sept. 24; the service is at 2 p.m. today in the College Chapel.
• The campus held a student-led memorial event at the Peace Pole and Garden to commemorate the 15th anniversary of the 9/11 attacks. Most members of the Class of 2020 were three years old when it occurred.

CAREER CORNER:

• Inspire a current student! Alumni and Parent volunteers are needed to host one or more students for a day of job shadowing this January. These amazing opportunities help students from all class years learn about different industries and gain experience networking with professionals, and hosts get to connect with some extremely talented students! Learn more about hosting and register to host by October 21. Contact the Center for Career Development at 717-337-6616 with questions.

- See what resources are available to alumni through the College’s Center for Career Development, including online assessment tools, resume and cover-letter-writing tips, job openings and more. You can also post job openings for Gettysburgians to see.

CAMPAIGN CORNER:

- Gettysburg Great: The Campaign for Our College will visit Boston the weekend of Oct. 21-22, providing alumni, parents and friends the opportunity to get together in a variety of manners and venues. There will be a Friday evening after-work social, an invitation to take classes with College professors on Saturday morning, an afternoon tour of Fenway Park with alumnus Rob Blomberg ’76 P’14, and a special celebration at the Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum on Saturday evening. Learn more and register!
- Calculate the benefits! If you’re thinking about making a gift to the College that also provides benefits to you, such as a stream of income, explore your options and try out our gift calculator.
- You can plan today to impact students tomorrow. Learn how one Gettysburgian and her husband are helping students realize their dreams.
- See the latest news, learn about the five priorities of the Campaign, and see how you can make a difference – ALL gifts count and matter! The total goal is $150 million, and thus far more than $119 million has been raised to benefit current and future Gettysburg students.

TRIVIA TIME: What campus feature was dedicated on Oct. 14, 1970? A t-shirt goes to the first person to email alumni@gettysburg.edu with the correct answer.

Congratulations to last month’s winner, Paula Calby, parent of a recent ’16 grad, who knew that the Interfraternity Council was founded in the fall of 1916 [many people answered Lambda Chi, but that was founded on May 30, 1916, which is not in the fall].
