Ample parking for the Gettysburg College Community is available at several on-campus lots. Please refer to the map on the reverse side of this brochure to assist you in finding these areas. In an effort to cooperate with the Gettysburg Borough, Public Safety has reduced the number of parking spaces on the Gettysburg College property. All students must register a Gettysburg College parking permit. All parked vehicles have to be clearly marked with a sign or sticker for reasonable measurement of the vehicle. All students are not permitted for parked vehicles not designed to handle parked vehicles. If you have special needs or are a student with a disability, please contact the Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities for assistance. (See below for information on the Student Rights and Responsibilities for assistance in handling the vehicle by Public Safety)

Off Campus Student Parking - Lancaster and Seward who are non-college housing, to have an off-campus parking permit. This includes students with a non-resident status that want a permit, but it is not possible to park in the off-campus parking lots. Student without a permit can only park in the student lots and are subject to ticked enforcement.

TRAFFIC AND PARKING REGULATIONS

Full-time Student - who reside outside of Gettysburg Borough and commute daily to their classes and activities are eligible to receive a Commuter Student parking permit for a fee of $20.00 academic per semester. A new permit is required each semester. Off-Campus Student Parking

The College’s Reassignment and Discrimination-Free Workplace Policy provides a procedure for personnel affected by reassignment or demotion. If you believe you have been subjected to such treatment, you should contact the Office of Human Resources and Risk Management. These procedures for students are below.

The College is committed to ensuring that all students have equal access to its properties, programs, services and activities. The College communicates, and the nature of the disability are confidential between the student and/or the Office of the Academic Affairs and Risk Management. The College does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, gender, age, national origin, creed, religion, ethnicity, sexual orientation, disability, veteran status, or any other characteristic protected by law.

How Do Students Obtain Necessary Accommodations?

Students with a previously identified disability who believe they may have one can contact the Office of Human Resources and Risk Management or the Access Coordinator at the Office of the Academic Affairs and Risk Management. An application is necessary for such a plan to be established, and documentation provided by the student may require further support or additional evaluations for determination of eligibility. Verification of a disability by another institution or through a court-ordered evaluation is not required for eligibility at Gettysburg College. Any cost associated with the student’s disability will be borne by the student.

If you are a student who has a previously identified disability who believes they may have one, you are encouraged to review the statement above and to review the process for determining eligibility at Gettysburg College, including any costs associated with the student’s disability. For further information, you may contact the Office of Human Resources and Risk Management.
