DEDICATE: The annual Dedication Day festivities will take place in Gettysburg on Wed., Nov. 19.

- The occasion marks the anniversary of Lincoln delivering his Gettysburg Address at the dedication of the National Cemetery in 1863, four months after the battle, at the invitation of Gettysburg alumnus David Wills, Class of 1850.
- The keynote speaker at ceremonies at the National Cemetery at 10 a.m. on Nov. 19 is Washington & Lee President Kent Masterson Brown. The event is free and open to the public, and includes a variety of additional speakers, including Gettysburg President Janet Morgan Riggs '77.
- The 53rd Annual Fortenbaugh Lecture will be at 7:30 p.m. that night, delivered by Dr. Nina Silber in the Majestic Theater. Prior to the lecture, the Michael Shaara Prize for Excellence in Civil War Fiction will be awarded by Jeff Shaara.
- It's always a special day to be in Gettysburg, so if you're looking for a mid-week break, we highly recommend attending the Nov. 19 celebration!

CELEBRATE – GETTYSBURG GREATS IN THE NEWS:

- Enzo Pinga ’11 has co-founded an urban agriculture company in his home country of the Philippines. Learn about his cutting-edge, non-profit venture.
- Christianna Giordano ’10 has been named to PR News’ “Rising Stars of PR” list, which is comprised of 30 individuals under the age of 30. She is a senior account executive at Cohn & Wolf in NYC. Read more.
- Carinne Park ’08 was a contestant recently on the popular NPR show “Wait Wait Don’t Tell Me.” Hear how she did.
- Ernesto Lopez ’98 is seeking re-election in the Delaware State Senate on Nov. 4. If you are running (or ran) for office this month, please let us know! alumni@gettysburg.edu
- Carol Daly Cantele ’83 and Ed Riggs ’77 will be inducted into the Adams County (PA) Sports Hall of Fame on Nov. 18 for their accomplishments at Gettysburg College as athletes and coaches. Riggs is also a member of the College’s Hall of Athletic Honor.
- Accomplished author Nancy Connor Springer ’70 has had 29 of her books put into digital form for easier access.
- Edwin Freed ’43, age 93, continues to write prolifically. The former Gettysburg Religion professor’s 11th book is an autobiography entitled “From Small Town Boy to Biblical Scholar,” which recently came out.
RECREATE – AROUND TOWN & CAMPUS:

- Each fall, English professor Chris Fee’s First-Year Seminar class on homelessness includes a four-day service-learning trip to DC, where the students interact with homeless people and learn about their issues. This year’s trip led to a feature in the Washington Post.
- Congratulations to the Class of 2007 for winning the BOLD Giving Month Challenge! Nearly 8% of the class made gifts during the 48-hour “Challenge” period Oct. 15-17, allowing them to nip the Class of 2010 by 0.2%. Overall, nearly 300 BOLD alumni made gifts during the two-day challenge, and more than 500 gifts came in during the month, including a high of 86 from the Class of 2008. See the full results of the successful initiative.
- Know of any high school seniors who may be a good fit for Gettysburg? If so, point them this way! The deadline for Early Decision applicants is Nov. 15, with the regular application deadline on Jan. 15. And if you want info to back up your recommendation of Gettysburg, check out the data to see how valuable a G-burg degree today is.
- The nationally ranked Gettysburg women’s lacrosse team is raising funds to help children in Leon, Nicaragua, via the inaugural “Race for Kids” 5K on the cross country course on Nov. 8. Learn more.
- A picture still says 1,000 words… or at the very least 140 characters. Check out Gettysburg’s “Photo of the Day” on the website, often. Here’s today’s entry. And remember to submit your own nominee(s) to pod@gettysburg.edu.
- The Eisenhower Institute is sponsoring a series of campus lectures and panel discussions on the topic of “National Security and Intelligence,” which began in Oct. and runs through Nov. 20. Speakers have included several alumni and high-level officials. Learn more.

NOMINATE: Please consider submitting your nominations for the following:

- Meritorious Service, Young Alumni Achievement, and Distinguished Alumni Awards. The Meritorious Service Award is given for a lifetime of service to Gettysburg College, while the Young Alumni awards are open to alums from the classes of 2000-2014 and are given for 1) service to Gettysburg and 2) career development. The Distinguished Alumni Award is the highest honor given by the Alumni Association; it recognizes alumni who have done outstanding work for humanity and/or who have distinguished themselves professionally. Submit nominees online by Nov. 14; you can also learn more about the awards and see past winners there.
- BOLD Council – The BOLD (‘Burgians of the Last Decade) Council is now accepting applications for three-year terms beginning on June 1, 2015; this is a great way to stay closely engaged with G-burg. Applications will be accepted until November 30, 2014, and should be submitted online. Alumni from the classes of 2008 through 2014 are eligible. See more about the BOLD Council, including a list of current members and officers.

CAMPAIGN CORNER: Gettysburg Great: The Campaign for Our College has crested $80 million on the path to the $150 million goal. See the latest news, learn about the five priorities of the campaign, and see how you can make a difference – ALL gifts count and matter! The Campaign was publicly launched on Sept. 20, 2014, following a three-year leadership phase chaired by Bob Joseph '69.

CAREER CORNER:

- The next free monthly Career Webinar will be offered Wed., Nov. 5 at 8 p.m. (ET), when Viveka von Rosen presents a session entitled “Let LinkedIn Market Your Skills & Experience.” Register for this free session and see the other offerings for Gettysburgians that are available online.
- See the jobs currently available at Gettysburg College.

TRIVIA TIME: On what date (month/day/year) did Pennsylvania Hall open for the first time? A t-shirt goes to the first person to email alumni@gettysburg.edu with the correct answer.

Congratulations to last month’s winner, Bob Allen ’89, who was the first to correctly answer that the Norris-Wachob Alumni House was dedicated on Oct. 23, 2004. Happy 10th Birthday, NWAH! (The building was constructed in 1860 as the home for the College president)
