Title IX REPORT CARD

Gettysburg College is committed to maintaining an environment conducive to learning for all students and a professional workplace for its employees. Gettysburg College prohibits discrimination, discriminatory harassment, and sexual harassment, including sexual violence and any type of sexual misconduct or relationship violence.

All members of the faculty, administration, and support staff who have information regarding, are witness to, or become aware by any means of any form of gender discrimination, sexual harassment, sexual misconduct, inappropriate sexual behavior, dating violence, domestic violence, and/or stalking that occurs on our campus involving either an employee, student, or guest are required to report the incident immediately. Reports may be made directly to either the Title IX Coordinator or one of the offices listed on the back of this “Report Card.” All members of the community may also submit a Community Concern Webform located at: www.gettysburg.edu/reportconcern.

Additionally, it is important to be aware that all members of the faculty, administration, and support staff are also required to report other incidents (i.e., non-gender-related) of harassment and/or discrimination that they observe or of which they become aware among our employee population. These reports may be made to a Co-Director of Human Resources and/or the Vice Provost. All members of the community may also submit a Community Concern Webform located at: www.gettysburg.edu/reportconcern.

We encourage all employees to report incidents of criminal behavior. Employees designated as campus security authorities (CSA’s) are mandatory reporters for all incidents of crime and discriminatory behavior. These types of incidents should be reported directly to the Department of Public Safety for follow-up and investigation. The College also encourages community members to report incidents of crime to the local police as well.

In the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, all employees of institutions of higher learning who suspect incidents of child abuse (including incidents of suspected child sex abuse) must immediately report such incidents first to the Department of Public Welfare’s Child Line (800-932-0313), then to the police having jurisdiction, and then to their supervisor.

Students
Any student who believes they have been a victim of sexual misconduct or relationship violence may visit College Life’s Sexual Misconduct Resource Website to obtain information about various support services (both confidential and official). For more information visit: www.gettysburg.edu/sexualmisconductresource. Incidents involving other forms of harassment and/or discrimination should be brought to the attention of DPS, Title IX Coordinator, the Director of Student Rights and Responsibilities, and/or another College official via the Community Concern Webform located at: www.gettysburg.edu/reportconcern.

Employees
Employees who believe they are a victim of sexual misconduct, relationship violence, harassment, and/or discrimination should bring the matter to the attention of a Co-Director of HR, the Vice Provost, the Title IX Coordinator, and/or another College official via the Community Concern Webform located at: www.gettysburg.edu/reportconcern.
If it happens on our campus, we need to know about it!

Gettysburg College prohibits discrimination and harassment, and provides equal opportunity without regard to race, ethnicity, color, religion, national origin, disability, veteran status, marital/familial status, possession of a General Education Development Certificate (GED) as compared to a high school diploma, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, sex, age, or genetic information in all aspects of employment, educational programs, activities, and admissions. Pursuant to Title IX of the Education Amendment Act of 1972, Gettysburg College prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex (i.e., sexual misconduct and relationship violence, including sexual assault and harassment) in all of its educational programs and activities.
