The Department will assign you an advisor

Meet with your new advisor and decide the six courses to count toward your minor

Submit
Education Department
Interest Form

Submit the Education Studies Minor Application

The department will review the application (The review process takes about two weeks)

EDUCATION MINOR FLOWCHART

If your application is approved, the Department will contact you as well as the Registrar's office

Declare your new Minor through Student Center

- a. Click "declare Major"
- b. Choose "Education Minor"

If you need to change
any of the courses specified on your original application, you will need to submit an application again and include the new courses