Civil War Institute Summer Conference

June 14-19, 2019

The Civil War Institute (CWI) at Gettysburg College is seeking applications from K-12 teachers interested in attending its annual residential summer conference. For more than thirty years, the CWI conference has brought together public audiences and leading historians for small group discussions, battlefield tours, panel sessions, and presentations. The 2019 CWI Conference will feature a wide range of topics, including the 1864 Atlanta campaign, the political crisis of the 1850s, Civil War artifacts, Nat Turner's Rebellion, the demobilization of Lee's army, and more, as well as an assortment of innovative field experiences.

The scholarship includes full-time tuition, room, and board at the conference and is valued at $1025.00. Scholarships do not fully cover transportation to/from Gettysburg, but recipients will be reimbursed travel costs UP TO $200.00.

Scholarships are available to educators working in both public and private K-12 schools. Homeschool instructors are also eligible to apply. Preference will be given to applicants who have not previously participated in the CWI summer conference (although veteran CWI attendees are welcome to apply) and those who are regularly called upon to teach the history, literature, culture, etc. of the 19th-century US. Veteran CWI attendees should be aware that these scholarships are primarily financial awards, and will not include special programming for recipients. Teacher scholarships are supported by endowment and internal funds.

Interested applicants should send the following information to the Civil War Institute (300 N. Washington Street, Box 435, Gettysburg, PA 17325) or civilwar@gettysburg.edu :

- resume (with contact information)
- cover letter describing how participation in the CWI conference would contribute to your professional development as an educator and benefit your students.

Applications must be received no later than FEBRUARY 15, 2019.
