The Civil War Institute (CWI) at Gettysburg College presents a conference each summer which consists of lectures, group discussions, battlefield tours, and other special activities. The CWI has sponsored this summer conference since 1983, and 250-300 people attend every year.

SCHOLARSHIP INFORMATION

Scholarships to attend the annual Civil War Institute summer conference are available for high school sophomores, juniors, and seniors. A full scholarship covers a shared air-conditioned dorm room, meals for the duration of the conference, and tuition fees. Transportation costs are not included.

Students may apply for a scholarship by filling out the form below and providing the following:

- 1) A letter of recommendation from your history teacher.
- 2) An eligibility form completed by your guidance counselor.
- 3) A letter describing your interest in the Civil War era, why you feel the CWI summer conference would benefit you, and what you believe you would contribute to the program.

Applications must be received by February 15, 2020.
