189TH COMMENCEMENT
SATURDAY, MAY 18, 2024
11:00 A.M.
PENNSYLVANIA HALL
NORTH SIDE
Gettysburg College was founded on April 7, 1832, by anti-slavery theologian Samuel Simon Schmucker. Five years later, the institution (then known as Pennsylvania College) moved into Pennsylvania Hall, built on land provided by Thaddeus Stevens, whose illustrious career in Congress included authorship of the 14th Amendment, which guaranteed full civil rights to citizens of all states.

When the Civil War erupted, the College stood in its midst. Elements of two great armies swept through campus on July 1, 1863, the first day of the decisive Battle of Gettysburg. Pennsylvania Hall became a hospital for hundreds of soldiers from both North and South.

On November 19, 1863, townspeople, students, and faculty marched to hear President Abraham Lincoln hallow the National Cemetery with his Gettysburg Address. David Wills, an 1851 graduate, invited Lincoln to deliver “a few appropriate remarks.”

Almost a century later, President Dwight D. Eisenhower settled in Gettysburg after leaving the White House in 1961 and served on the College’s Board of Trustees. He wrote his memoirs in what is today the College’s Admissions Office.

Today, Gettysburg College is a vibrant learning community that has produced prominent graduates in a wide variety of fields, including former White House Counsel Fred Fielding ’61, U.S. Congressman Ron Paul ’57, Nobel Prize-winning cancer researcher Michael Bishop ’57, former NAACP President and CEO Bruce Gordon ’68, five-time Oscar-nominated cinematographer Owen Roizman ’58, Chair of the Global Partnership for Education Carol Bellamy ’63, Newbery Medal-winning Maniac Magee author Jerry Spinelli ’63, leading sleep researcher Mary Carskadon ’69, McKnight Foundation President Kathryn Wolford ’79, and Emmy-award winning actor, stylist, author, and fashion guru Carson Kressley ’91.
In the spirit of global citizenship and community, Gettysburg College welcomes you in each language currently offered for study:

THE PRESIDENTIAL MEDALLION

The Gettysburg College Presidential Medallion and chain were created in 1978 for the inauguration of Charles E. Glassick, the eleventh president, by Norman L. Annis, former professor of art. The medallion features the College seal, three inches in diameter. The seal is flanked by two smaller medallions, one being the seal of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America and the other depicting symbols of higher education. The one-inch medallions, which constitute the chain, list the past presidents and the dates they served the College.

THE COLLEGE MACE

Ceremonial occasions at Gettysburg College begin with the entrance of the College mace, carried by the College Marshal. The mace symbolizes the College’s governing authority and is present only when the president is in attendance. It is used only at Convocation, the Midyear Graduates Recognition ceremony, the Baccalaureate service, and the Commencement ceremony.

The tradition of the mace derives from medieval England, when the mace was held by a bodyguard for dignitaries at ceremonial functions. As an ancient symbol of authority, it reminds us that the College is a custodian both of the enduring traditions of learning and of the power they bestow upon those who come to learn.

THE BEACHEM PORTICO

The portico on the north side of Pennsylvania Hall is properly known as the Beachem Portico, erected with funds given by the Alumni Association and dedicated to the memory of the College’s first alumni secretary, Charles W. Beachem 1925. Gettysburg College’s Alumni Association is among the oldest in the nation and particularly notable for having been formed within three years of the 1832 founding of the College. The Alumni Association of Pennsylvania College (as it was then known) was founded on Commencement day, September 16, 1835. There were 11 initial members, the graduates of 1834 and 1835.

PRESIDENT’S CHAIR

The President’s Chair comes from the estate of Dr. F. William Sunderman Sr., a 1919 graduate of Gettysburg College. In 1983 he created the Sunderman Foundation for Chamber Music, which presents a concert series on campus each year. He was also a trustee emeritus of the College and the founder of its annual Henry M. Scharf Lecture on Current Affairs. Upon Dr. Sunderman’s death in 2003, his legacy provided for the establishment of the College’s F. William Sunderman Sr. Conservatory of Music, which began admitting students in the fall of 2006.

STOLE OF GRATITUDE

The “Stole of Gratitude,” a tradition which originated in 2004, is in part a gift from the Gettysburg College Alumni Association and the President’s Office. The graduates will wear the stoles throughout the Commencement Exercises as symbols of their appreciation for all of the individuals whose support was instrumental in bringing them to this day. At the reception following Commencement, or at some other time, graduates may present the stole to someone to demonstrate their gratitude for that individual’s role in their success.

ACADEMIC REGALIA

Academic ceremonies, with their gowns, mortarboards, tassels, hoods, and maces are colorful traditions handed down from European universities of the Middle Ages. The first organized institutions of learning took form during the twelfth and thirteenth centuries, generally under the jurisdiction of the church. Academic regalia, as we know them today, have evolved from the robes, hoods, and caps worn mainly for warmth in unheated buildings by the clerics, monks, and priests who were the first students.

While European universities continue to show great diversity in their academic dress, American universities, in 1895, adopted a code of academic uniformity. The colors, designs, and opulence used in the tassels, hoods, velvet and satin trimmings, and robes designate everything from the level of degree held by the wearer, to his or her field of study, to the institution from which the degree was earned.

Data science minor

Student Speaker

Selected to represent the Class of 2024 as the student speaker is Regan K. Rightmire ’24. A graduate of Downingtown S.T.E.M. Academy in Downingtown, Pennsylvania, she felt an immediate connection with our campus and culture after hearing stories from her uncle, Christopher Reno ’00, detailing his own time at Gettysburg. During her four years, Rightmire discovered a world of opportunities that exceeded her own expectations for her undergraduate career thanks to Gettysburg’s rigorous liberal arts and sciences education.

A business, organizations, and management major and data science minor, Rightmire was pushed out of her comfort zone, exploring unique academic topics and engaging in a host of co-curricular experiences designed to prepare students for professional success and personal fulfillment after college. She studied abroad in Florence, Italy, during her junior year and worked closely with the Management Department for the past three semesters as a peer learning associate for statistical methods courses.

A three-year member of the women’s lacrosse team, Rightmire helped the Bullets win the Centennial Conference title in 2022 and guided the team to back-to-back trips to the national semifinals in 2022 and 2023. During the summer of 2023, she interned at Burlington as a buying intern, and she has been working as a writing intern for NowSourcing Infographic Design Agency for the past two and a half years.

Rightmire also honed her enduring skills through her other numerous campus activities. As Delta Gamma’s director of social events, she sharpened her communication and creativity skills, and further developed her leadership and teamwork skills by founding and serving as editor of 1863 Magazine, a digital pop culture and fashion hub that publishes the voices of creatives and aspiring writers in the Gettysburg campus community.

All of these experiences have prepared Rightmire with the necessary tools to embark on a life of meaning and consequence following graduation today. She will attend the New York University School of Professional Studies to pursue a master’s degree in public relations and corporate communications.

Alma Mater

Paul S. Gilbert 1922  F.E. Reinartz 1924

As softly the evening shadows are veiling the campus towers,
When ever thy loyal ones gather to waken fond memory,

We come, a band of good fellows, to sing in the twilight hours;
Our thoughts shall be turned, Alma Mater, old Gettysburg back to thee:

The silvery moonlight mantles, the worn walls of chapel anew,
For ever am I thy debtor and what ever else I may do,

The wind in the trees sweetly echoes, our praises of orange and blue.
I'll love, I'll defend, and I'll honor the glorious orange and blue.
