RUSSELL MCCUTCHEON, Conductor

Russell McCutcheon started in commercial radio as an overnight and weekend disc jockey for GC-101 “The Best Variety of Country” (WYGC) in Gainesville, Florida in 1993. He was a regular guest jock on the “Friday All-Request Drive Home” on GC-101 and voiced/produced many commercials for area merchants.

He moved on to Florida’s 100,000 watt coast-to-coast KTK 98.5 “The Best of the 70’s, 80’s, and Today” (WKTK) as a disc jockey/announcer and also served as the local producer of the national nightly call-in request show “Delilah After Dark.” His final position was with “The Sky” 97.3FM NewsTalk where he produced the “Joe Young Show” and the morning news block.

Russell McCutcheon is Professor of Music and Director of Bands in the Gettysburg College Sunderman Conservatory of Music where conducts the Wind Symphony and oversees the band program. Additionally, he serves as Coordinator of Music Education and is the Gettysburg College Teacher Certification Officer.

Bands under his direction have performed in the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts, at the Gewandhaus in Leipzig, at Smetana Hall in Prague, in the Great Guild Hall in Latvia, and in Lithuania, Estonia, China, Singapore, England, Scotland, Italy, Canada and Switzerland. In 2018, McCutcheon was awarded 2nd Place for The American Prize in Musical Theater Conducting, a national non-profit competition in the performing arts. In 2016, McCutcheon was named an American Prize Finalist in the Conducting: University and College Bands Division.

McCutcheon is the Conductor and Musical Director of the Pennsylvania Lions All-State Band, which performs yearly in Pennsylvania and regularly tours nationally and internationally. He is a contributor to the best-selling book series, “Teaching Music through Performance in Bands,” and is an active clinician and guest conductor.
