Wind Symphony

The Sunderman Conservatory Wind Symphony is the premier wind and percussion ensemble in the Sunderman Conservatory of Music at Gettysburg College in Gettysburg, Pennsylvania, USA. The Wind Symphony is comprised of a select group of 40-45 musicians including music majors, music minors, and dedicated musicians from all majors. The Wind Symphony rehearses and performs some of the best new literature and wind band masterworks in five concerts each year.

The Wind Symphony has toured regionally and internationally, including performances in the Kennedy Center (Washington, D.C.), Shanghai Maritime University (China), National University of Singapore (Singapore), the Gewandhaus Mendelssohn Hall (Germany), and Smetana Hall (Prague). In 2013, the Wind Symphony released Gettysburg at 150, a recording commemorating the Sesquicentennial Anniversary of the American Civil War and the Battle of Gettysburg and in 2020 released The Music of Brian Balmages, Vol. 1. Both of these recordings were named eligible for GRAMMY nominations in multiple categories. The Sunderman Conservatory Wind Symphony and conductor Russell McCutcheon actively promote new music for wind ensemble, with seventeen commissions and premieres since 2009.
