Rules for Submissions:

- Works in all media (painting, drawing, sculpture, photography, printmaking and digital art) will be considered and must be ready to exhibit. (2D works preferably framed)

- Works must have been made as part of any Gettysburg College studio art course, studio art independent study or approved off-campus program during the 2015-16 academic year or spring 2015, if student studied abroad or completed work after the 2015 submission date.

- Up to 3 submissions per student

- Selected artworks must be available for the entire length of exhibition.

- Complete the copies of submission form provided and secure BOTH forms to the back of the artwork.

JUROR:
Cory Oberndorfer is an artist fixated on nostalgia, American popular culture, and the joy of life’s simple pleasures. His work has been exhibited nationally, including Grand Central Art Center in Santa Ana, CA, Redux Contemporary Art Center in Charleston, SC, Flashpoint Gallery, G Fine Art, and the Katzen Arts Center in Washington, D.C. He has received multiple Artist Fellowships and project grants from the D.C. Commission on the Arts and Humanities and currently teaches as an adjunct instructor at George Washington University and Montgomery College, Takoma Park. Oberndorfer received his BFA from Weber State University and MFA from American University.

Additional Guidelines:

- The Director of the Schmucker Art Gallery retains the right to reject any work that is deemed unsafe to exhibit.

- While every precaution will be taken to ensure the security of the submissions, the Schmucker Art Gallery and its staff will not be responsible for loss or damage to artworks.

- Awards will be given at the juror's discretion. The decisions of the juror are final.

- All work must be collected on the designated pick-up date. The gallery is not responsible for the storage or delivery of art not collected.

Notification of selection:

- An email will be distributed to those students whose works have not been selected. Students are responsible for picking up unselected work on March 21 between 10 am and 4 pm.

Prizes:
Juror’s Award: $100 gift certificate
First prize: $100 gift certificate
Second Prize: $75 gift certificate
Third Prize: $50 gift certificate
Honorable Mention: $20 gift certificate
