Adams County Youthful Offenders Alcohol Education Program

At-a-Glance

If you have been charged with an underage drinking or related offense and you would like a way to get this off your record and receive valuable information this program might be for you!

In order to be eligible for the program you must meet the following criteria:

- You committed an underage drinking or related offense
- You have not been in a similar program for a similar offense
- You are a first time offender and your record is clean
- Your driver history does not show any previous alcohol-related offenses
- You pled 'not guilty' in response to your citation

- Program involves (4) 3-hour classes located in Gettysburg PA - only apply if you can commit to all 4 classes! *see below for 2015 classes
- Program has to be completed with the Adams County Department of Probation Services - Programs in another County or State will not apply
- In some cases you will have a license suspension even if you complete the program *note #7 on the application
- Program fee must be paid in full when applying for the program

What about expungement of your record??

If you plead guilty and don't enter into the program you have to wait 5 years and be arrest and prosecution-free before petitioning to have your record expunged.

If you plead not-guilty, enter into and complete the program, your record will be expunged! You will be provided with a Petition for Expungement at the last class which you can file with the Adams County Clerk of Courts Office. There is a filing fee!! (Approximately $50)

A license suspension will stay on your driver's record regardless of expungement!
