Right to Serve, Right to Lead: Lives and Legacies of the USCT
This exhibit uses original artifacts, documents, and photographs to follow the evolution of African-American participation in the Civil War. Curated by our summer 2016 Brian C. Pohanka intern, Matthew LaRoche ’17.

Dining with Special Collections
In the spirit of the Year of Food theme, Special Collections and College Archives has opened its cabinets to display food related artifacts from our collections. Grab a historic menu and please join as at our table for Civil War, Asian Art, and College History artifacts and memorabilia to whet your intellectual appetite.

10:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.
William Clutz: Crossings
Schmucker Art Gallery
This exhibition by renowned American artist William Clutz celebrates the recent gift of artworks of the artist to Gettysburg College and is organized in partnership with the Washington County
Museum of Fine Arts (WCMFA) in Hagerstown, MD. The exhibition features 24 pastels, drawings, and large-scale paintings.

Although Clutz spent most of his life in New York City, he was born in Gettysburg and has strong familial ties to the College.

2:00 p.m. – 4:00 p.m.
The Cross-Disciplinary Science Institute at Gettysburg College (X-SIG)
4th Annual Poster Presentation
Science Center Lobby
Students who worked in Gettysburg College science department research labs or did research off campus over the summer will present their findings in posters and be on hand to answer questions. The summer research program was funded, in part, through an initiative of Gettysburg College's Howard Hughes Medical Institute (HHMI) Precollege and Undergraduate Science Education program. Posters will remain on display the entire weekend.

2:00 p.m. – 5:00 p.m.
Family Photo Session
Scrambling to find the perfect family photo to use on your holiday card? Let us ease some of your stress and take that photo for you! The fountain, gazebo, Adirondack chairs, and fall foliage make a beautiful backdrop for a Gettysburg-themed family photo, and we’ll send you your pictures for free. Sign up for a 10-15 minute session by contacting Wendee at wdunlap@gettysburg.edu or (717) 337-8074.

3:00 p.m. – 3:50 p.m.
Family College
Experience the expertise, creativity, and wit of our faculty by attending a Family College course. A second session is offered at 5:10 p.m. First come, first served. Seating may be limited.

The Art of New York Streets
Schmucker Art Gallery
A tour through the current exhibition, William Clutz: Crossings. You will learn about the artist’s 50-year career in New York City, his affinity for conveying the dynamism of city streets, and the influences of Abstract Expressionism and French Impressionism. William Clutz's works are held in major collections, including the Metropolitan Museum of Art, the Museum of Modern Art, and the Solomon R. Guggenheim Museum, among many others. This Family College course and exhibition celebrate the recent gift of Clutz’s paintings to the College.

Director, Schmucker Art Gallery

Teaching and Learning in the Year of Food
Masters 117
Everyone loves food, which makes it a great topic for the College community to use as a means to connect what we learn in the classroom with the roles that food plays in our immediate lives as well as our local, national, and global communities. Come learn more about how Gettysburg
College's Year of Food is helping us to connect curricular and co-curricular learning in new and interesting ways.

Caroline Hartzell
Professor of Political Science and Director of the Center for the Study of Global Issues

3:00 p.m. - 7:00 p.m.
Smoke Out Arthritis with Alpha Omicron Pi
Bullet Hole Patio
Looking for a meal on the go? Support the sisters of Alpha Omicron Pi as they raise money for the Arthritis Foundation. Enjoy boxes of barbecue from 3 Hogs BBQ and Ben’s Backyard BBQ. Includes coleslaw, mac-n-cheese, and baked goods.

3:30 p.m.
Field Hockey vs. Johns Hopkins
Shirk Field, Musselman Stadium

3:30 p.m. - 4:00 p.m.
Phi Beta Kappa Initiation
Joseph Theater, Breidenbaugh Hall 201
The Iota of Pennsylvania Chapter of Phi Beta Kappa welcomes its newest members to the Society. The Gettysburg College chapter elects to membership about five to ten percent of the senior class who have distinguished academic records and exhibit high moral character and intellectual curiosity. Election to Phi Beta Kappa is perhaps the most widely recognized academic distinction in American higher education. Open to the public. Photography is welcome.

4:00 p.m. - 5:00 p.m.
Fall Honors Day
Christ Chapel
Join us in this annual recognition ceremony when over 60 different awards are presented to students. The Dr. Ralph Cavaliere Endowed Teaching Award and The Johnson Center for Creative Teaching and Learning Excellence in Teaching Award are presented to two members of the faculty.

5:00 p.m. - 7:30 p.m.
Campus Dining Option
Dining Center
Dinner cost is $12.50 per person.

5:00 p.m. – 8:00 p.m.
Family Weekend Happy Hour
The Attic, West Building
Come relax in a family-friendly environment. Adult beverages, non-alcoholic drinks, and a variety of snacks and appetizers will be served. This event will also feature live music playing a wide range of songs from the 60s through today's hits.
5:10 p.m. – 6:00 p.m.
Family College Session 2
First come, first served. Seating may be limited.

Hatter Planetarium Show
Hatter Planetarium, Masters Hall
Attend a show in the newly renovated Hatter Planetarium. Visit our immersive, full-dome digital theater for a guided tour of the current night sky and demonstration of some of the new system’s capabilities. Seating limited to 40 people. First come, first served.

Ian Clarke
Director, Hatter Planetarium

Black Poets Matter
Breidenbaugh 209
Together we will consider the role of African American poetry and lyrical expression in advancing social justice movements. We will discuss contemporary spoken word artists and musicians within a tradition of writers whose work explores questions of identity, equality, and justice within American society, and we will engage in lively discussions about the value of poetry and lyricism as well as the power of words to impact the world in which we live.

McKinley Melton
Assistant Professor, English

21st Century Skills for a Changing World of Opportunity
Science Center 200 (off the main lobby)
Join us for an entertaining discussion during which we will use the Economics Department and our Quantitative Skills program to demonstrate our perspective on the unique educational experience that combines the global thinking perspective of liberal arts and sciences training with practical skills such as mathematics, economics, finance, computer science, statistical analysis, predictive modeling, etc. (Big Data). In this class, we will attempt to frame current economic conditions (whatever they may be) to demonstrate what we learn in class about the connection between math, economics and human psychology.

Drew E. Murphy ’84, P’20
Lecturer, Economics

6:00 p.m. - 8:00 p.m.
Shabbat Service and Dinner
Hillel House, 135 N. Washington St.
Join Gettysburg Hillel as we celebrate Shabbat with a service and dinner.

7:00 p.m. - 9:00 p.m.
Observatory Open House
Observatory
Tour the Gettysburg College Observatory and our local night sky. See the equipment used in our astronomy survey courses, upper-level lab courses, and student-faculty research. Weather permitting, we will have several telescopes and binoculars available to observe the night sky. Astronomy students and professors will be on hand to answer questions and show a few of the seasonal favorites the fall sky has to offer. The Observatory is purposefully set at the edge of campus. There are no facilities, and attire appropriate for the weather and conditions should be worn.

8:00 p.m.
Jazz Ensemble Concert
Majestic Theater
This annual performance will include an appearance by Delfeayo Marsalis, one of the top trombonists, composers, and producers in jazz today. Known for his "technical excellence, inventive mind, and frequent touches of humor" (Leonard Feather, Los Angeles Times), he is "one of the best, most imaginative, and musical of the trombonists of his generation" (Philip Elwood, San Francisco Examiner). In January 2011, Delfeayo and the Marsalis family (father Ellis and brothers Branford, Wynton, and Jason) earned the nation’s highest jazz honor – a National Endowment for the Arts Jazz Masters Award. This is a Gettysburg College Sunderman Conservatory Event.

Tickets: $5.00 for adults, free for children 18 and under and those with a Gettysburg College ID. Majestic Box Office: 717-337-8200 or online at www.gettysburgmajestic.org
