NOTICE OF RIGHTS AND DUTIES

Pennsylvania law requires employers to notify employees of their rights and duties regarding medical services provided under the Workers’ Compensation Law (the Act). This notice will provide you a summary of the applicable provisions of the Act:

- Your employer has established a medical panel, which includes at least six designated health care providers, no more than four of whom are coordinated care organizations and no fewer than three of whom are physicians. The employer has not included on this list a physician or health care provider who is employed, owned or controlled by the employer or the employer’s insurer unless employment, ownership or control is disclosed on the list.
- You have a duty to obtain treatment for work-related injuries and illnesses from one or more of the designated health care providers for 90 days from the date of the first visit to a designated provider.
- You have the right to seek treatment or medical consultation from a nondesignated provider during the 90-day period, but these services shall be at your expense for the applicable 90 days.
- You have the right to have all reasonable medical supplies and treatment related to the injury paid for by your employer as long as treatment is obtained from the designated provider during the 90-day period.
- You have the right, during this 90-day period, to switch from one health care provider on the list to another health care provider on the list, and that all treatment shall be paid for by your employer.
- You have the right to seek treatment from a referral provider if a designated provider refers you, and your employer shall pay for treatment rendered by the referral provider.
- You have the right to seek emergency medical treatment from any provider, but subsequent nonemergency treatment shall be by a designated provider for the remainder of the 90-day period.
- You have a right to seek treatment from any health care provider after the 90-day period has ended, and that treatment shall be paid for by your employer, if it is reasonable and necessary.
- After ninety (90) days from the date of first treatment, you have a duty to notify your employer of treatment by a nondesignated provider within 5 days of the first visit to that provider. Your employer may not be required to pay for treatment rendered by the nondesignated provider prior to receiving this notification. However, your employer shall pay for these services once notified, unless the treatment is found unreasonable by a utilization review organization.
- You have the right to seek an additional opinion from any health care provider of your choice when a designated provider prescribes invasive surgery for you. If the additional opinion differs from the opinion of the designated provider and the additional opinion provides a specific and detailed course of treatment, you shall determine which course of treatment to follow. If you opt to follow the course of treatment outlined by the additional opinion, the treatment shall be performed by one of the health care providers on your employer’s designated list for 90 days from the date of the first visit to the provider of the additional opinion.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF RIGHTS AND DUTIES

I hereby acknowledge that my employer has provided me with a copy of this "Notice of Rights and Duties". I have been informed of and I understand my rights and duties pertaining to medical treatment for work-related injuries hereunder. This notice was presented to me at (check one):

WORKER'S COMPENSATION INFORMATION

To all employees:

The workers' compensation law provides wage loss and medical benefits to employees who cannot work, or who need medical care, because of a work-related injury.

Benefits are required to be paid by your employer when self-insured, or through insurance provided by your employer. Your employer is required to post the name of the company responsible for paying workers' compensation benefits at its primary place of business and at its sites of employment in a prominent and easily accessible place, including, without limitation, areas used for the treatment of injured employees or for the administration of first aid.

You should report immediately any injury or work-related illness to your employer.

Your benefits could be delayed or denied if you do not notify your employer immediately.

If your claim is denied by your employer, you have the right to request a hearing before a Workers' Compensation Judge.

The Bureau of Workers' Compensation cannot provide legal advice. However, you may contact the Bureau of Workers' Compensation for additional general information at:

3. You must continue to visit one of these persons listed above if you need treatment, for ninety (90) days from the date of your first visit.

4. After this ninety (90) day period, if you still need treatment and your employer has provided a list as set forth above, you may choose to go to another licensed physician or practitioner of the healing arts for treatment. Your bills will be paid for if:
   a. You notify your employer in writing of this action or choice within five (5) days of your visit.
   b. Your licensed physician or practitioner of the healing arts files reports as required. These reports must be filed within ten (10) days after your first visit and at least once a month for as long as treatment continues.

5. If no list is provided as above (No. 2), you may go to a licensed physician or practitioner of the healing arts of your choice.

6. If one of the persons listed above refers you to another licensed specialist, your employer or his insurer will pay the bill for these services.

7. If you are faced with a medical emergency, you may secure assistance from a hospital or physician or practitioner of the healing arts of your choice.

ALL INJURIES, NO MATTER HOW MINOR, SHOULD BE REPORTED IMMEDIATELY TO YOUR SUPERVISOR, AND TO HUMAN RESOURCES AT 717-337-6202.
Frequently Asked Questions About I-9 Compliance

What is required to verify work authorization?

The basic requirement to verify work authorization is the Form I-9. This form is available on the HR website: http://www.fit.edu/hr/documents/Forms/I-9.pdf. The back of the form lists the types of documents that a new hire must provide to verify his or her identity and that he or she is authorized to work in the United States. The purpose of the I-9 form is to verify identity and authorization to work in the United States.

What are the current civil penalties?

- Violations of I-9 requirements: fines range from $110 - $1,100 per I-9.
- Knowingly hiring or continuing to employ: fines range from $375 - $3,200 per alien
- Pattern or practice: $3,300 - $11,000
- Debarment from government contracts for "knowingly employing an unauthorized worker"
- Criminal penalties: fines and/or imprisonment

What are the basic Form I-9 requirements?

- Employers must complete for every new hire after November 6, 1996.
- Employers may not knowingly hire or continue to employ a person who is not authorized to work in the United States. Knowingly means "actual knowledge" or "constructive knowledge."
- Physical presence of the employee is required.
- Must see original documents, not copies. However, will accept a certified copy of birth certificate.
- Attach photocopies of documents to I-9.

No exception for temporary or part-time employment.

Who should fill out Form I-9?

- Form I-9 must be completed for all new hires, including temporary or part-time employment
- Form I-9 must be completed for all employees working in the U.S., even if on payroll abroad
- Form I-9 is not required for independent contractors
- Form I-9 is not required for pre-11/07/86 hires (grandfathered employees)
- Form I-9 is not required for employees working outside the U.S. or outside its territories

How should Form I-9 be completed?

- Physical presence of employee is required (Someone has to see person and his/her documents)
- Must see original documents, not copies. However, will accept a certified copy of birth certificate.
- Attach photocopies of documents
- No exception for temporary or part-time employment

Form W-4 (2019)

Future developments. For the latest information about any future developments related to Form W-4, such as legislation enacted after it was published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW4.

Purpose. Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. Consider completing a new Form W-4 each year and when your personal or financial situation changes.

Exemption from withholding. You may claim exemption from withholding for 2019 if both of the following apply:

- For 2018 you had a right to a refund of all federal income tax withheld because you had no tax liability, and
- For 2019 you expect a refund of all federal income tax withheld because you expect to have no tax liability.

If you're exempt, complete only lines 1, 2, 3, 4, and 7 and sign the form to validate it. Your exemption for 2019 expires February 17, 2020. See Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax, to learn more about whether you qualify for exemption from withholding.

General Instructions

If you aren't exempt, follow the rest of these instructions to determine the number of withholding allowances you should claim for withholding for 2019 and any additional amount of tax to have withheld. For regular wages, withholding must be based on allowances you claimed and may not be a flat amount or percentage of wages. You can also use the calculator at www.irs.gov/W4App to determine how your tax withholding more accurately. Consider using this calculator if you have a more complicated tax situation, such as if you have a working spouse, more than one job, or a large amount of nonwage income not subject to withholding outside of your job. After your Form W-4 takes effect, you can also use this calculator to see how the amount of tax you're having withheld compares to your projected total tax for 2019. If you use the calculator, you don't need to complete any of the worksheets for Form W-4.

Note that if you have too much tax withheld, you will receive a refund when you file your tax return. If you have too little tax withheld, you will owe tax when you file your tax return, and you might owe a penalty.

Filers with multiple jobs or working spouses. If you have more than one job at a time, or if you're married filing jointly and your spouse is also working, read all of the instructions including the instructions for the Two-Earners/Multiple Jobs Worksheet before beginning.

Nonwage income. If you have a large amount of nonwage income not subject to withholding, such as interest or dividends, consider making estimated tax payments using Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals. Otherwise, you might owe additional tax. Or, you can use the Deductions, Adjustments, and Additional Income Worksheet on page 3 or the calculator at www.irs.gov/W4App to make sure you have enough tax withheld from your paycheck. If you have pension or annuity income, see Pub. 505 or use the calculator at www.irs.gov/W4App to find out if you should adjust your withholding on Form W-4 or W-4P.

Nonresident alien. If you're a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Specific Instructions

Personal Allowances Worksheet

Complete this worksheet on page 3 first to determine the number of withholding allowances to claim.

Line C. Head of household please note:
Generally, you may claim head of household filing status on your tax return only if you're unmarried and pay more than 50% of the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and a qualifying individual. See Pub. 501 for more information about filing status.

Line E. Child tax credit. When you file your tax return, you may be eligible to claim a child tax credit for each of your eligible children. To qualify, the child must be under age 17 as of December 31, must be your dependent who lives with you for more than half the year, and must have a valid social security number. To learn more about this credit, see Pub. 972, Child Tax Credit. To reduce the tax withheld from your pay by taking this credit into account, follow the instructions on line E of the worksheet. On the worksheet you will be asked about your total income. For this purpose, total income includes all of your wages and other income, including income earned by a spouse if you are filing a joint return.

Line F. Credit for other dependents. When you file your tax return, you may be eligible to claim a credit for other dependents for whom a child tax credit can't be claimed, such as a qualifying child who doesn't meet the age or social security number requirements for the child tax credit, or a qualifying relative. To learn more about this credit, see Pub. 972. To reduce the tax withheld from your pay by taking this credit into account, follow the instructions on line F of the worksheet. On the worksheet, you will be asked about your total income. For this purpose, total income includes all of your wages and other income, including income earned by a spouse if you are filing a joint return.

Separate here and give Form W-4 to your employer. Keep the worksheet(s) for your records.

Line G. Other credits. You may be able to reduce the tax withheld from your paycheck if you expect to claim other tax credits, such as tax credits for education (see Pub. 970). If you do so, your paycheck will be larger, but the amount of any refund that you receive when you file your tax return will be smaller. Follow the instructions for Worksheet 1-6 in Pub. 505 if you want to reduce your withholding to take these credits into account. Enter "-0-" on lines E and F if you use Worksheet 1-6.

Deductions, Adjustments, and Additional Income Worksheet

Complete this worksheet to determine if you're able to reduce the tax withheld from your paycheck to account for your itemized deductions and other adjustments to income, such as IRA contributions. If you do so, your refund at the end of the year will be smaller, but your paycheck will be larger. You're not required to complete this worksheet or reduce your withholding if you don't wish to do so.

You can also use this worksheet to figure out how much to increase the tax withheld from your paycheck if you have a large amount of nonwage income not subject to withholding, such as interest or dividends.

Another option is to take these items into account and make your withholding more accurate by using the calculator at www.irs.gov/W4App. If you use the calculator, you don't need to complete any of the worksheets for Form W-4.

Two-Earners/Multiple Jobs Worksheet

Complete this worksheet if you have more than one job at a time or are married filing jointly and have a working spouse. If you don't complete this worksheet, you might have too little tax withheld. If so, you will owe tax when you file your tax return and might be subject to a penalty.

Figure the total number of allowances you're entitled to claim and any additional amount of tax to withhold on all jobs using worksheets from only one Form W-4. Claim all allowances on the W-4 that you or your spouse file for the highest paying job in your family and claim zero allowances on Form W-4 filed for all other jobs. For example, if you earn $60,000 per year and your spouse earns $20,000, you should complete the worksheets to determine what to enter on lines 5 and 6 of your Form W-4, and your spouse should enter zero ("-0-") on lines 5 and 6 of his or her Form W-4. See Pub. 505 for details.

Another option is to use the calculator at www.irs.gov/W4App to make your withholding more accurate.

Tip: If you have a working spouse and your incomes are similar, you can check the "Married, but withhold at higher Single rate" box instead of using this worksheet. If you choose this option, then each spouse should fill out the Personal Allowances Worksheet and check the "Married, but withhold at higher Single rate" box on Form W-4, but only one spouse should claim any allowances for credits or fill out the Deductions, Adjustments, and Additional Income Worksheet.

Instructions for Employer

Employees, do not complete box 8, 9, or 10. Your employer will complete these boxes if necessary.

New hire reporting. Employers are required by law to report new employees to a designated State Directory of New Hires. Employers may use Form W-4, boxes 5, 9, and 10 to comply with the new hire reporting requirement for a newly hired employee. A newly hired employee is an employee who hasn't previously been employed by the employer, or who was previously employed by the employer but has been separated from such prior employment for at least 60 consecutive days. Employers should contact the appropriate State Directory of New Hires to find out how to submit a copy of the completed Form W-4. For information and links to each designated State Directory of New Hires (including for U.S. territories), go to www.irs.gov/w4 employers.

If an employer is sending a copy of Form W-4 to a designated State Directory of New Hires to comply with the new hire reporting requirement for a newly hired employee, complete boxes 8, 9, and 10 as follows.

Box 8. Enter the employer's name and address. If the employer is sending a copy of this form to a State Directory of New Hires, enter the address where child support agencies should send income withholding orders.

Box 9. If the employer is sending a copy of this form to a State Directory of New Hires, enter the employee's first date of employment, which is the date services for payment were first performed by the employee. If the employer rehired the employee after the employee had been separated from the employer's service for at least 60 days, enter the rehire date.

Box 10. Enter the employer's employer identification number (EIN).

For accuracy, complete all worksheets that apply.

- If you plan to itemize or claim adjustments to income and want to reduce your withholding, or if you have a large amount of nonwage income not subject to withholding and want to increase your withholding, see the Deductions, Adjustments, and Additional Income Worksheet below.
- If you have more than one job at a time or are married filing jointly and you and your spouse both work, and the combined earnings from all jobs exceed $53,000 ($24,450 if married filing jointly), see the Two-Earners/Multiple Jobs Worksheet on page 4 to avoid having too little tax withheld.
- If neither of the above situations applies, stop here and enter the number from line H on line 5 of Form W-4 above.

Deductions, Adjustments, and Additional Income Worksheet

Note: Use this worksheet only if you plan to itemize deductions, claim certain adjustments to income, or have a large amount of nonwage income not subject to withholding.

1. Enter an estimate of your 2019 itemized deductions. These include qualifying home mortgage interest, charitable contributions, state and local taxes (up to $10,000), and medical expenses in excess of 10% of your income. See Pub. 505 for details.
2. Enter:
   - $24,400 if you’re married filing jointly or qualifying widow(er)
   - $18,350 if you’re head of household
   - $12,200 if you’re single or married filing separately
   2 $
3. Subtract line 2 from line 1. If zero or less, enter "0-".
   3 $
4. Enter an estimate of your 2019 adjustments to income, qualified business income deduction, and any additional standard deduction for age or blindness (see Pub. 505 for information about these items).
5. Add lines 3 and 4 and enter the total.
   5 $
6. Enter an estimate of your 2019 nonwage income not subject to withholding (such as dividends or interest).
   6 $
7. Subtract line 6 from line 5. If zero, enter "0-". If less than zero, enter the amount in parentheses.
   7 $
8. Divide the amount on line 7 by $4,200 and enter the result here. If a negative amount, enter in parentheses. Drop any fraction.
   8 $
9. Enter the number from the Personal Allowances Worksheet, line H, above.
   9 $
10. Add lines 8 and 9 and enter the total here. If zero or less, enter "0-". If you plan to use the Two-Earners/Multiple Jobs Worksheet, also enter this total on line 1 of that worksheet on page 4. Otherwise, stop here and enter this total on Form W-4, line 5, page 1.
Two-Earners/Multiple Jobs Worksheet

Note: Use this worksheet only if the instructions under line H from the Personal Allowances Worksheet direct you here.

1. Enter the number from the Personal Allowances Worksheet, line H, page 3 (or, if you used the Deductions, Adjustments, and Additional Income Worksheet on page 3, the number from line 10 of that worksheet).

2. Find the number in Table 1 below that applies to the LOWEST paying job and enter it here. However, if you’re married filing jointly and wages from the highest paying job are $75,000 or less and the combined wages for you and your spouse are $107,000 or less, don’t enter more than "$3".

3. If line 1 is more than or equal to line 2, subtract line 2 from line 1. Enter the result here (if zero, enter "-0") and on Form W-4, line 5, page 1. Do not use the rest of this worksheet.

Note: If line 1 is less than line 2, enter "-0." on Form W-4, line 5, page 1. Complete lines 4 through 9 below to figure the additional withholding amount necessary to avoid a year-end tax bill.

4. Enter the number from line 2 of this worksheet.

5. Enter the number from line 1 of this worksheet.

6. Subtract line 5 from line 4.

7. Find the amount in Table 2 below that applies to the HIGHEST paying job and enter it here.

8. Multiply line 7 by line 6 and enter the result here. This is the additional annual withholding needed.

9. Divide line 8 by the number of pay periods remaining in 2019. For example, divide by 18 if you’re paid every 2 weeks and you complete this form on a date in late April when there are 18 pay periods remaining in 2019. Enter the result here and on Form W-4, line 6, page 1. This is the additional amount to be withheld from each paycheck.

Privacy Act and Paperwork Reduction Act Notice. We ask for the information on this form to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. Internal Revenue Code sections 3402(f)(2) and 6109 and their regulations require you to provide this information; your employer uses it to determine your federal income tax withholding. Failure to provide a properly completed form will result in your being treated as a single person who claims no withholding allowances; providing fraudulent information may subject you to penalties. Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation; to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. commonwealths and possessions for use in administering their tax laws; and to the Department of Health and Human Services for use in the National Directory of New Hires. We may also disclose this information to other countries under a tax treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce federal nontax criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism.

You aren’t required to provide the information requested on a form that’s subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act unless the form displays a valid OMB control number. Books or records relating to a form or its instructions must be retained as long as the contents may become material in the administration of any Internal Revenue law. Generally, tax returns and return information are confidential, as required by Code section 6103.

The average time and expenses required to complete and file this form will vary depending on individual circumstances. For estimated averages, see the instructions for your income tax return.

If you have suggestions for making this form simpler, we would be happy to hear from you. See the instructions for your income tax return.
Purpose. Complete Form MW507 so that your employer can withhold the correct Maryland income tax from your pay. Consider completing a new Form MW507 each year and when your personal or financial situation changes.

Basic Instructions. Enter on line 1 below, the number of personal exemptions you will claim on your tax return. However, if you wish to claim more exemptions, or if your adjusted gross income will be more than $100,000 if you are filing single or married filing separately ($150,000, if you are filing jointly or as head of household), you must complete the Personal Exemption Worksheet on page 2. Complete the Personal Exemption Worksheet on page 2 to further adjust your Maryland withholding based on itemized deductions, and certain other expenses that exceed your standard deduction and are not being claimed at another job or by your spouse. However, you may claim fewer (or zero) exemptions.

Additional withholding per pay period under agreement with employer. If you are not having enough tax withheld, you may ask your employer to withhold more by entering an additional amount on line 2.

Exemption from withholding. You may be entitled to claim an exemption from the withholding of Maryland income tax if:

a. Last year you did not owe any Maryland income tax and had a right to a full refund of any tax withheld; AND,

b. This year you do not expect to owe any Maryland income tax and expect to have a right to a full refund of all income tax withheld.

If you are eligible to claim this exemption, complete Line 3 and your employer will not withhold Maryland income tax from your wages. Students and Seasonal Employees whose annual income will be below the minimum filing requirements should claim exemption from withholding. This provides more income throughout the year and avoids the necessity of filing a Maryland income tax return.

Certification of nonresidence in the State of Maryland. Complete Line 4. This line is to be completed by residents of the District of Columbia, Virginia or West Virginia who are employed in Maryland and who do not maintain a place of abode in Maryland for 183 days or more.

Residents of Pennsylvania who are employed in Maryland and who do not maintain a place of abode in Maryland for 183 days or more, should complete line 5 to exempt themselves from the state portion of the withholding tax. These employees are still liable for withholding tax at the rate in effect for the Maryland county in which they are employed, unless they qualify for an exemption on either line 6 or line 7. Pennsylvania residents of York and Adams counties may claim an exemption from the local withholding tax by completing line 6. Pennsylvania residents living in other local jurisdictions which do not impose an earnings or income tax on Maryland residents may claim an exemption by completing line 7. Employees qualifying for exemption under 6 or 7, should also write "EXEMPT" on line 4. Line 4 is NOT to be used by residents of other states who are working in Maryland, because such persons are liable for Maryland income tax and withholding from their wages is required.

If you are domiciled in the District of Columbia, Pennsylvania or Virginia and maintain a place of abode in Maryland for 183 days or more, you become a statutory resident of Maryland and you are required to file a resident return with Maryland reporting your total income. You must apply to your domicile state for any tax credit to which you may be entitled under the reciprocal provisions of the law. If you are domiciled in West Virginia, you are not required to pay Maryland Income tax on wage or salary income, regardless of the length of time you may have spent in Maryland.

Under the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act, as amended by the Military Spouses Residency Relief Act, you may be exempt from Maryland Income tax on your wages if (i) your spouse is a member of the armed forces present in Maryland in compliance with military orders; (ii) you are present in Maryland solely to be with your spouse; and (iii) you maintain your domicile in another state. If you claim exemption under the SCRA enter your state of domicile (legal residence) on Line 8; enter "EXEMPT" in the box to the right on Line 6; and attach a copy of your spousal military identification card to Form MW507. In addition, you must also complete and attach Form MW507M.

Duties and responsibilities of employers. Retain this certificate with your records. You are required to submit a copy of this certificate and accompanying attachments to the Compliance Division, Compliance Programs Section, 301 West Preston Street, Baltimore, MD 21201, when received:

1. You have any reason to believe this certificate is incorrect;

2. The employee claims more than 10 exemptions;

3. The employee claims an exemption from withholding because he/she had no tax liability for the preceding tax year, expects to incur no tax liability this year and the wages are expected to exceed $200 a week;

4. The employee claims an exemption from withholding on the basis of nonresidence;

5. The employee claims an exemption from withholding under the Military Spouses Residency Relief Act.

Upon receipt of any exemption certificate (Form MW507), the Compliance Division will make a determination and notify you if a change is required. Once a certificate is revoked by the Comptroller, the employer must send any new certificate from the employee to the Comptroller for approval before implementing the new certificate.

If an employee claims exemption under 3 above, a new exemption certificate must be filed by February 15th of the following year.

Duties and responsibilities of employees. If, on any day during the calendar year, the number of withholding exemptions that the employee is entitled to claim is less than the number of exemptions claimed on the withholding exemption certificate in effect, the employee must file a new withholding exemption certificate with the employer within 10 days after the change occurs.

Purpose. Complete Form REV-419 so that your employer can withhold the correct Pennsylvania personal income tax from your pay. Complete a new Form REV-419 every year or when your personal or financial situation changes. Photocopies of this form are acceptable.

Note: Unless the state of residence changes, residents of the reciprocal states listed in the next paragraph do not need to refile this application every year.

Who is Eligible for Nonwithholding? You may be entitled to nonwithholding of PA personal income tax if you incurred no liability for income tax the preceding tax year and/or you anticipate that you will incur no liability for income tax during the current tax year, according to the Special Tax Provisions of section 304 of the Tax Reform Code, the Servicemember Civil Relief Act (SCRA) or as a resident of the reciprocal state of Indiana, Maryland, New Jersey, Ohio, Virginia or West Virginia and your employer agrees to withhold the income tax from that state.

When to Claim? File this certificate with your employer as soon as you determine you are entitled to claim nonwithholding. You must file a certificate each year you are eligible (see Note above for an exception). If you are employed by more than one employer you must file a separate REV-419 with each employer.

Responsibilities of Employee. You must revoke this certification within 10 days from the day you anticipate you will incur PA personal income tax liability for the current tax year. To discontinue or revoke this certification, submit notification in writing to your employer. Claimants who qualify for complete Tax Forgiveness under section 304 of the Tax Reform Code must file a PA-40, Pennsylvania Personal Income Tax Return, and Schedule SP to claim Tax Forgiveness even if they are eligible for nonwithholding.

Under the SCRA, as amended by the Military Spouses Residency Relief Act, you may be exempt from PA personal income tax on your wages if (i) your spouse is a member of the armed forces present in PA in compliance with military orders; (ii) you are present in PA solely to be with your spouse; and (iii) you and your spouse both maintain the same domicile (state residency) in another state. If you claim exemption under the SCRA, enter your state of domicile (legal residence) on Line d below and attach a copy of your spousal military identification card and your spouse’s current military orders to Form REV-419.

Responsibilities of Employer. If you agree not to withhold PA tax because your employee is a resident of a reciprocal state, you must withhold the other state’s tax. Retain Form REV-419 with your records. You are required to submit a copy of this certificate and accompanying attachments to the PA DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE, BUREAU OF BUSINESS TRUST FUND TAXES, PO BOX 280904, HARRISBURG, PA 17128-0904, when:

1. you have reason to believe this certificate is incorrect;
2. the PA taxable gross compensation of any employee who claimed either exemption from nonwithholding and/or below exceeds $1,625 for any quarter;
3. the employee claims an exemption from withholding on the basis of residence in a reciprocal state (Indiana, Maryland, New Jersey, Ohio, Virginia or West Virginia) and therefore, you agree to withhold income tax of the employee’s state of residence; or
4. the employee claims an exemption from withholding under the SCRA as amended by the Military Spouses Residency Relief Act.

Department’s Responsibility. Upon receipt of any exemption application, the department will make a determination and notify the employer if a change is required. If the department disapproves the application, the employer must immediately commence withholding at the regular rate. Once a certificate is revoked by the department, the employer must send any new application received from the employee to the department for approval before implementing the nonwithholding.

I claim exception from withholding because I do not expect to owe Pennsylvania personal income tax due to the reason(s) checked below:

- a. Last year I qualified for Tax Forgiveness of my PA personal income tax liability and had a right to a full refund of all income tax withheld.
- b. This year I expect to qualify for Tax Forgiveness of my PA personal income tax liability and expect to have a right to a full refund of all income tax withheld.
- c. I declare I am a resident of the reciprocal state checked below:
  - INDIANA
  - MARYLAND
  - NEW JERSEY
  - OHIO
  - VIRGINIA
  - WEST VIRGINIA
  and that pursuant to the reciprocal tax agreement between that state and PA, I claim an exemption from withholding of PA personal income tax and authorize my employer to withhold income tax for my resident state on compensation paid to me in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
- d. I certify I am a legal resident of the state of __________ and not subject to Pennsylvania withholding because I meet the requirements set forth under the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act, as amended by the Military Spouses Residency Relief Act.

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that I did not incur any Pennsylvania personal income tax liability during the preceding tax year and/or I do not expect to incur any liability during the current tax year based on the reason(s) indicated above.

Note: Unless the state of residence changes, residents of the reciprocal states listed in the next paragraph do not need to refile this application every year.

Who is Eligible for Nonwithholding? You may be entitled to nonwithholding of PA personal income tax if you incurred no liability for income tax the preceding tax year and/or you anticipate that you will incur no liability for income tax during the current tax year, according to the Special Tax Provisions of section 304 of the Tax Reform Code, the Servicemember Civil Relief Act (SCRA) or as a resident of the reciprocal state of Indiana, Maryland, New Jersey, Ohio, Virginia or West Virginia and your employer agrees to withhold the income tax from that state.

When to Claim? File this certificate with your employer as soon as you determine you are entitled to claim nonwithholding. You must file a certificate each year you are eligible (see Note above for an exception). If you are employed by more than one employer you must file a separate REV-419 with each employer.

Responsibilities of Employee. You must revoke this certification within 10 days from the day you anticipate you will incur PA personal income tax liability for the current tax year. To discontinue or revoke this certification, submit notification in writing to your employer. Claimants who qualify for complete Tax Forgiveness under section 304 of the Tax Reform Code must file a PA-40, Pennsylvania Personal Income Tax Return, and Schedule SP to claim Tax Forgiveness even if they are eligible for nonwithholding.

Under the SCRA, as amended by the Military Spouses Residency Relief Act, you may be exempt from PA personal income tax on your wages if (I) your spouse is a member of the armed forces present in PA in compliance with military orders; (II) you are present in PA solely to be with your spouse; and (III) you and your spouse both maintain the same domicile (state residency) in another state. If you claim exemption under the SCRA, enter your state of domicile (legal residence) on Line d below and attach a copy of your spouse’s military identification card and your spouse’s current military orders to form REV-419.

Responsibilities of Employer. If you agree not to withhold PA tax because your employee is a resident of a reciprocal state, you must withhold the other state’s tax. Retain Form REV-419 with your records. You are required to submit a copy of this certificate and accompanying attachments to the PA DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE, BUREAU OF BUSINESS TRUST FUND TAXES, PO BOX 280594, HARRISBURG, PA 17128-0904, when:

1. you have reason to believe this certificate is incorrect;
2. the PA taxable gross compensation of any employee who claimed either exemption from withholding a or b below exceeds $1,625 for any quarter;
3. the employee claims an exemption from withholding on the basis of residence in a reciprocal state (Indiana, Maryland, New Jersey, Ohio, Virginia or West Virginia) and therefore, you agree to withhold income tax of the employee’s state of residence;
4. the employee claims an exemption from withholding under the SCRA as amended by the Military Spouses Residency Relief Act.

Department’s Responsibility. Upon receipt of any exemption application, the department will make a determination and notify the employer if a change is required. If the department disapproves the application, the employer must immediately commence withholding at the regular rate. Once a certificate is revoked by the department, the employer must send any new application received from the employee to the department for approval before implementing the nonwithholding.

CNAV Time Sheets Training Manual for Students
(updated 3/10/2014)

General Overview:

Employees access the CNAV time sheet system after they have been hired into PeopleSoft, given access to CNAV and their timesheet set up by their supervisor. Until a CNAV time sheet has been created, a paper time sheet should be completed. Employees are responsible for recording worked hours daily and reviewing and approving the time sheet by the user deadline each period.

Student employee responsibilities include:

- Recording daily hours. It is of the utmost importance that you record your hours daily and submit them in a timely manner. If a time sheet is submitted late it not only delays your paycheck but it also impacts your federal taxes and Department of Labor compliance. Completing your time sheet is part of your job responsibilities.
- Hours must be entered in the specified format, entering times using a colon and then am or pm without spaces (i.e., 10:00am).
- Confirm with supervisor the deadline for submitting your time sheet for their review and approval (This must be done by 10:00am on the Monday following the end of the pay period).
- Review and approve your time sheet.
- Confirm your supervisor has approved your time sheet. You can do this by selecting the correct pay period (located in the drop down directly above your name) and clicking on the “Preview Time Sheet” link (on the far right side). If you scroll to the bottom of the page and do NOT see one of your supervisor’s names behind the “Signature of Supervisor” this means the time sheet has NOT been approved and you may want to remind him/her.

Employee Data Entry of Hours:

1. Log into CNAV (https://cnav.gettysburg.edu)
2. Under My Place, select My Time Sheet.
3. Select the appropriate time sheet and pay period to record your hours.
4. Click on Edit Time Sheet.
5. Record your hours on the appropriate days with am or pm noted.
   - If you are required to work on a holiday you must select CHW in the drop down box behind the OUT time.
6. Click submit to save.

Verifying and Approving your Time Sheet:

1. Scroll down to the bottom of the page and click the print preview button.
2. If your hours are represented correctly, click on the browser’s back button.
3. Scroll down to the bottom of the page and click on the user status button. Click Approved.
4. Click submit to save
5. This must be done by 10:00am on the Monday following the end of the pay period.
