

Off-Campus Activities Behavior Contract

All Gettysburg College students who plan to participate in an off-campus activity must agree to the expectations outlined below:

As a Gettysburg College student, I am expected to act with a high level of responsibility and maturity at all times and this expectation extends and, indeed, increases when participating in an activity taking place away from campus. In addition, I understand that by participating in this off-campus activity I am serving as an ambassador of Gettysburg College. My actions reflect not only on myself, but on Gettysburg College. Therefore, I will make a special effort to serve as a good ambassador and representative of the College.

I understand that I must continue to abide by all the policies included in Gettysburg College's Student Rights and Responsibilities. Any actions which violate these policies and take place while I am away from campus will be addressed on site by the Faculty Director or other representative. These actions will also be addressed through Gettysburg College's judicial system upon my return to campus.

I understand that there are certain behaviors which are considered unacceptable and could lead to possible disruption of the activity, and could result in my dismissal from the activity. By signing this Behavioral Contract, I commit to conducting myself in an appropriate manner which does not infringe upon the customs and mores of the country in which the activity is being conducted, nor upon the rights and safety of me or of other participants of the activity. If it is legal for me to consume alcohol and I choose to partake, I will do so responsibly. I understand that the use or possession of illegal drugs or being knowingly present in instances of use or possession of illegal drugs is cause for immediate dismissal. Behavioral responsibilities are applicable during the entire course of the activity, whether I am with a group or on my own, and I acknowledge that return transportation and all other expenses associated with my dismissal are my sole and exclusive financial responsibility.

I hereby agree to comply with the terms of this Behavioral Contract.
