FOR TANGIBLE SERVICES
GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1) COMMENCEMENT OF WORK: Contractor shall commence and carry on the Work under this Contract and shall supply and be represented by competent supervision acceptable to Gettysburg College, who shall be authorized to act for Contractor in all matters. All directions concerning the Work given in writing to such supervision shall be as binding as if given directly to Contractor. All skilled personnel employed in connection with the Contract shall qualify therefore by experience or ability. Gettysburg College may require Contractor to submit proof of such experience and qualifications. Contractor shall employ the necessary safety and security practices as are normal or as required by law for the type of Work authorized hereunder. Should Gettysburg College so require, Contractor shall comply with Gettysburg College's safety and security requirements. Contractor shall replace any of its personnel whose Work, at the discretion of Gettysburg College, is contrary to the requirements of this Contract. Contractor shall not subcontract any obligations hereunder without prior written approval of Gettysburg College. Contractor shall comply with all local, state and federal rules, regulations, orders, directives and statutes applicable to wage and employment practices, and shall act in the best interest of Gettysburg College on matters which affect area practices and might tend to set precedents.

2) DUE DILIGENCE: Performance of this Contract by each party shall be pursued with due diligence in all requirements. However, neither party shall be liable for any loss or damage for delay or nonperformance due to causes not reasonably within its control. In the event of any delay resulting from such causes, the time for performance and payment hereunder shall be extended for a period of time reasonable necessary to overcome the effect of such delays. In the event of any delay or nonperformance caused by such uncontrollable forces, the party affected shall promptly notify the other in writing of the nature, cause, date of commencement and the anticipated extent of such delay, and shall indicate whether it is anticipated that the completion dates would be affected.

3) RECORDS AND AUDIT: Contractor shall keep accurate records of account for all Work performed hereunder, and shall provide copies of it (except of that Work for which a fixed price has been quoted) to Gettysburg College as required by Gettysburg College. Gettysburg College shall have the right, at all reasonable, times during regular business hours, to inspect and audit such records. Contractor shall preserve such records for 36 months after termination/cancellation/completion of this Contract.

4) WARRANTIES AND REMEDIES: Contractor warrants that all professional services performed by Contractor hereunder shall be in accordance with sound and currently accepted practices and principles normally employed in the industry for the services provided and that the Work shall conform to the specifications provided in Article 1 of the Contract. Contractor further warrants that all program code and all specifications, including but not limited to design specifications and programming specifications and all other documentation and deliverables, and all work-in-process, works of authorship, inventions, techniques, concepts, know-how, ideas, and other intellectual property created, developed, conceived or reduced to practice by Contractor hereunder, either solely or jointly with others does not and shall not infringe upon any patent, trademark, copyright, trade secret or other proprietary right of any third party. Gettysburg College shall notify Contractor if and in what respect Gettysburg College determines that any of the said Warranties have not been met. Contractor, at its expense, shall promptly provide the professional services required to meet the Warranties.

5) TITLE TO PROPERTY: Gettysburg College shall have title to all Work, including all Intellectual Property, completed or in process and to all machinery, equipment, materials and supplies, the cost of which has been paid to Contractor. All studies, designs, drawings, plans, specifications, test results, inventions, patent rights (including data produced by computer or other electronic means and stored on disc, tape or any other form) and other data in any form and in whatever state of completion prepared by Contractor shall be the property of Gettysburg College upon completion or termination of this Contract. Gettysburg College shall have the right to use same for any purpose whatsoever without right on the part of Contractor to any additional compensation therefor.

6) INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY INFRINGEMENT: Contractor agrees to defend, indemnify and hold Gettysburg College, its parent, subsidiaries and affiliates, as well as the employees and agents of Gettysburg College, its officers, invitees, partners and their respective partners, parents, parent-affiliated companies, assigns, and successors in interest, against any and all losses, liabilities, judgments, awards, and costs, including reasonable attorney fees and expenses arising out of or in any way related to any claim that Client's use, possession or sale of the Intellectual Property infringes or violates the patent, trademark, copyright, trade secret or other proprietary right of any third party, and Contractor further agrees to settle and defend at its sole expense all suits or proceedings arising out of the foregoing. If an infringement is found to have been committed, College may require Contractor, at Contractor's sole expense, to procure for College the right to continue to use the infringing item with equivalent products or services that do not infringe upon any third party's rights, or modify the infringing item so that no infringement is committed, or if none of the foregoing alternatives is possible, take back the infringing item and refund to College an amount equal to the full amount paid by College to Contractor for the Work.

7) TERMINATION, CANCELLATION AND SUSPENSION: If Contractor shall be adjudged bankrupt, or become insolvent, or file for voluntary bankruptcy or be subjected to involuntary bankruptcy proceedings, or enter receivership proceedings, or make an assignment for the benefit of creditors, or if Contractor should persistently or repeatedly refuse or should fail, except in cases for which extension of time is provided, to supply enough properly skilled workmen or proper materials, or if Contractor should fail to perform the Work, or any part thereof, with the diligence necessary to insure its progress and completion as prescribed by the time schedule and shall fail to take such steps to remedy such default within five (5) days after written notice thereof from Gettysburg College as Gettysburg College shall direct, or should Contractor fail to make prompt payment to vendors or subcontractors for materials or labor or otherwise is guilty of a violation of any provision of this Contract, then Gettysburg College, without prejudice to any of the other rights or remedies expressly provided for herein, may terminate this Contract, or any part hereof, by written notice to Contractor and shall have the right thereafter to take possession of all materials, equipment and the like. In such cases of termination, Gettysburg College shall be relieved of all further obligations hereunder and Contractor shall be liable to Gettysburg College for all costs incurred by Gettysburg College in completing such Work in excess of the total compensation herein defined. Upon 15 days written notice, Gettysburg College, at its option, may cancel this Contract at any time, whether or not Contractor is in default of any of its obligations hereunder. Upon any such cancellation, Contractor agrees to waive any claim for damages, including loss of anticipated profits on account thereof. However, provided that Contractor is not in default of its obligations hereunder, Gettysburg College agrees that Contractor shall be paid an amount which when added to all installments previously paid will equal the sum of all costs properly incurred prior to date of cancellation, plus earned profit on such incurred costs, but in no event shall such amount be greater than the Contract price. Such earned profit shall bear the same relationship to such incurred costs as the profit increment of the Contract price bears to the costs increment of such Contract price. Gettysburg College reserves the right to verify the amounts of such costs and profit increments through an audit of Contractor's records. Gettysburg College reserves the right to suspend the Work of the Contractor at any time in Gettysburg College's sole discretion. Gettysburg College shall give Contractor written notice of said suspension of Work. Gettysburg College agrees to pay Contractor for its costs, charges, and expenses arising out of the suspension of this Contract caused by the exercise of Gettysburg College's rights set forth herein. Costs, charges and expenses shall be exclusive of anticipated profit. Contractor shall include the foregoing provisions in all subcontracts in which it enters to the end that Gettysburg College and Contractor shall have the rights therein set forth with respect to each subcontractor.

Gettysburg College shall not be responsible for the direct payment of any withholding taxes, social security payments, payments under workmen's compensation or other insurance premiums, or other charges of any kind or nature, except as specifically outlined herein. 11) ACCEPTANCE: When all Work is completed Contractor shall so notify Gettysburg College, and Gettysburg College shall have the right to a final review of the Work including any and all records and reports maintained by Contractor in connection with the Work. Gettysburg College shall either notify Contractor of its acceptance of the Work or issue to Contractor a description of deficiencies requiring correction in order for the Work to conform to the Contract requirements. Upon correction to Gettysburg College's satisfaction of such deficiencies by Contractor, Gettysburg College shall be deemed to have accepted the Work.

12) INSURANCE: When performing hereunder, Contractor shall carry and maintain comprehensive public liability insurance, including contractual liability, property damage, workers' compensation, and employer's liability insurance with coverage satisfactory to Gettysburg College. Prior to commencement of any services to be performed hereunder, if requested, Contractor shall deliver to Gettysburg College certificates of such insurance naming Gettysburg College as an additional insured, and which stipulate that not less than 30 days' notice will be given Gettysburg College prior to termination or reduction of the limits of coverage.

Contractor shall pay all such taxes, charges, or contributions before delinquency or discount date and shall hold Gettysburg College harmless from any liability and expense by reason of Contractor's failure to pay such taxes, charges or contributions.

15) USE OF GETTYSBURG COLLEGE'S PREMISES: All Work shall be performed in such a manner as to cause a minimum of interference with Gettysburg College's operations and the operations of other contractors on the premises. Contractor shall take all necessary and proper precautions to protect Gettysburg College's premises and all persons and property thereon from damage or injury.

16) LIENS: Upon completion of the Work and as a condition precedent to final payment, Contractor shall deliver to Gettysburg College a full release of liens form as Gettysburg College may require. If any such lien does so become attached, Contractor shall promptly procure its release and hold Gettysburg College harmless from such losses, costs, damages or expenses incidental thereto including court costs and attorney's fees.

17) FORCE MAJEURE: If, because of force majeure, either party hereto is unable to carry out any of its obligations under this Contract, other than the obligations to pay money due hereunder, and if such party promptly gives to the other party hereto written notice of such force majeure, then the obligations of the party giving such notice shall be suspended to the extent made necessary by such force majeure and during its continuance, provided that the party giving such notice shall use its best efforts to remedy such force majeure insofar as possible with all reasonable dispatch. The term "force majeure" as used herein shall mean any causes beyond the control of the party affected

Upon the cessation of the force majeure event, the party that had given original notice shall again promptly give notice to the other party of such cessation.

18) NONDISCLOSURE: It is recognized by the parties to this Agreement that the performance of services under this Agreement is likely to give or require access to confidential information of Gettysburg College and necessitate contact with others engaged in confidential work for Gettysburg College. Contractor shall use at least the same degree of care to protect confidential information received hereunder as it does to protect and safeguard its own confidential information of a like nature, but in any event no less than a reasonable degree of care. Upon termination of performance of services pursuant to this Agreement, Contractor agrees to promptly return to Gettysburg College any and all documents made or obtained by Contractor or its employees in the course of performance of services pertaining to or containing any of the confidential information referred to above, and not to make any written record of such information nor disclose such information to others nor to make any use of such information.

Contractor shall not in any manner represent that it has any ownership interest in the Work. It is further understood that Gettysburg College may use the Work in any manner Gettysburg College sees fit.
