Note. Nationally, yield rates among liberal arts colleges have been declining.

*These numbers reflect first-time, first-year (freshman) admission in the fall (transfers excluded).

**The College enrolled new transfers both in the fall and in the spring semester. Most of the transfers entered as upper-class students; occasionally, this group included transfers whose class level was first-year.

We share this information with both advisors to whom you are assigned. Please rank three areas of Academic Interest in the section below. Although you likely have an interest in all of these areas, ranking them 1-3 assist us in the advisor assignment process.") (Both majors & minors were displayed on the Dashboard; the table above displays the number of students who ranked an area as 1, 2, or 3, interpreted as 1st Priority, 2nd Priority, and 3rd Priority, respectively. Label for each area displayed in the table above is identical to that displayed on the Dashboard.) . First-year Cohort includes 644 students.

Note. First-year students include first-time, full-time, degree-seeking students (cohort). *As reported by first-year students on the Cooperative Institutional Research Program (CIRP) Freshman Survey during the 1st week of class except for Fall 2021 when it was conducted during the first few weeks of class. The survey question is "Please indicate your intended major using the codes provided on the attached fold out." Respondents are asked to choose from a list of undergraduate major fields (grouped into broader categories) provided by CIRP and can only choose ONE major. The historical average response rate for our CIRP Survey has been over 90% except for Fall 2021 when the response rate was 35%. Survey not conducted in Fall 2022.
