

Fall 2020 Announcement of Online Courses, and Remote Learning Opportunities

As the College prepares for a return to residence for Fall 2020, the Provost's Office and the Office of the Registrar have been collaborating with Academic Departments and Programs on the Fall 2020 course offerings. The Office of the Registrar has the following updates for the Fall 2020 course schedule-

Online Courses- The College is planning to offer a set of courses that will be taught by a Gettysburg College Faculty member exclusively online for Fall 2020. Unless otherwise noted, students will be expected to meet with the instructor during the scheduled meeting times. The Student Center will not allow a student to schedule multiple online courses with the same meeting times. A list of Fall 2020 online courses can be found below.

Remote Learning- Students wishing to learn remotely at Gettysburg College for Fall 2020 are not limited to the fully Online courses. The College is currently working with faculty and preparing classroom spaces with technology that will allow courses to be taken remotely by students that for various reasons may not be able to attend the class in-person. The College cannot guarantee all classes will be available remotely. If you are planning to learn remotely for Fall 2020, and have not contacted the Office of the Registrar, please do so at your earliest convenience- registrar@gettysburg.edu.

Fall 2020 Announcement of Online Courses: The following courses will be offered online for the Fall 2020 Semester. Unless otherwise noted, students will be expected to meet with the instructor during the scheduled meeting times. The Student Center will not allow a student to schedule online courses that overlap. If you have any questions, please contact the Office of the Registrar: registrar@gettysburg.edu
